ANOTHER BATTLE IN VIRGINIA.

A Severe Engagement on Monday Evening.

GENS. KEARNEY AND STEVENS KILLED

THE ENEMY DRIVEN BACK.

Our Forces Occupy the Field of Battle.

SEVERITY OF SATURDAY'S FIGHT.

Our Forces Five Miles Beyond Centreville on Sunday.

Arrival of Wounded from the Battle Field.

A Stampede Among the Ambulance Drivers.

Trains with Ammunition Destroyed at Manassas.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Sept. 2.

Gens. KEARNEY and STEVENS were killed in a severe engagement which took place last evening near Chantilly, about two miles North of Fairfax Court-house, between a portion of Gen. POPE's army and JACKSON's forces. Our loss was heavy, but the enemy was driven back a mile, and we occupied the field of battle until 3 o'clock this morning.

Gen. STEVENS was killed with a Minie ball, which entered his brain while he was leading his men into action, bearing the colors in his hand, the Color-Sergeant having been slain. His son, acting as Assistant-Adjutant of the brigade commanded by his father, was wounded.

Gen. PHILIP KEARNEY was also killed last night. His body was taken possession of by the enemy, but afterwards delivered into our lines under a flag of truce.

MOVEMENTS OF OUR ARMY.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Sept. 2—P. M.

Our army has advanced two miles toward the late battle-field.

The killed are being buried, and the wounded removed, under a flag of truce.

About twenty-three hundred have thus far been removed from the various fields of battle.

A COUNCIL OF WAR.

A correspondent of the Newark Daily Advertiser says: "A council of war was held yesterday (Sept 1.) at Centreville, which was participated in by Gens. Pope, McDowell, Sigel, Banks, Heintzelman, Kearney, Hooker, Porter, Reno, Cox, Sumner and Sturgis; and the plans that were determined on are said to have met the complete sanction and approval of Gen. HALLECK, who is perfectly satisfied they will result advantageously. The prospect is pronounced promising that Gen. POPE will soon advance upon the enemy again."

REINFORCEMENTS.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin says: "Gen. KEYES' corps d'armée, which was left at Yorktown by Gen. MCCLELLAN, has arrived at Alexandria. The fact is announced in the papers here."

DETAILS OF THE RECENT BATTLES.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Sept. 1.

Recent advices received from the vicinity of the last sanguinary conflicts in Virginia with the enemy, report affairs in that locality as being comparatively quiet. The news from that quarter, to-day, has been, considering the intense excitement and bustle prevalent, decidedly meagre. Rumors and stories of the most extravagant nature have been circulated throughout the city, a great majority of which have been found, on inquiry and reasoning, to be entirely unreliable.

Parties who left Centreville late yesterday afternoon, report that the command of Gen. BANKS (which had been rumored cut off) commenced arriving at that point about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. There can be very little doubt of the correctness of this report, as our informant states that he witnessed the arrival of the command. It is further stated that a march of 25 miles was accomplished by them on that day in order to reach that position.

The greatest attention is being given to the condition of the wounded, who are conveyed with all possible promptitude to the various departments prepared for their reception. An overabundance of nurses and physicians have tendered their services, and it is most assuredly true, that the brave men who have fallen in defence of the National honor, will not want for sympathy and kind attention in their sufferings. The different relief associations, both male and female, have been organized—many of them lately—and assiduous in their endeavors to alleviate the suffering condition of our wounded.

It was stated in a former letter that a large number of stragglers were yesterday picked up by the enemy's cavalry. The raid was made between Fairfax Court House and Centreville.

During the past two days the prices of market provisions have nearly doubled, owing to the increased demand for them, and the country people being interrupted in their pursuits.

On Sunday morning, between 8 and 9 o'clock, 15 of the ambulances, being in advance of the train coming down a hollow, were captured. In all, there were about 230 ambulances and 60 hacks. About 2,300 wounded have so far been removed from the field. The movements were facilitated by Major W. C. BARRY, of New-York.

Yesterday evening, at 6 o'clock, our army was with drawn behind the hills of Centreville as a feint, it is believed, to draw on the enemy, but they did not advance. This morning our army again advanced at least two miles toward the old battle-field; the large reinforcements which arrived there, consisting of cavalry and infantry, make the army perfectly safe. No firing took place after 9 o'clock Saturday night. KEARNEY's Division remained on the field till 11 o'clock. On Sunday some shell were thrown into the enemy, but no response was made.

This morning a slight skirmish took place in Gen. KEARNEY's Division.

In the recent battle, Gen. HAVEN was wounded slightly—a ball penetrating the brim and body of his hat, flattened on the skull.

The dead have been buried and the wounded removed to-day from the late scene of conflict, under a flag of truce.

FROM FAIRFAX COURT-HOUSE.

FAIRFAX COURT-HOUSE, Monday, Sept. 1.

Yesterday afternoon a flag of truce was sent in for permission to bring off the dead and wounded of our army, who had not been reached during the days of the fighting, which was granted to last from noon till sunset. Some sixty ambulances were sent with a number of physicians and some citizens, and on their arrival at the field a terrible scene presented. The wounded, with few exceptions, having received no attention; our doctors all leaving in company with the troops, and the enemy having enough to do to attend to their own.

The physicians immediately commenced their operations, but their means and help were very inadequate. About one-half of the wounded were brought in, their wounds partly dressed, some amputations performed, and the ambulances filled and brought away, the number being about 200. About 150 to 200 still remained on the field, and now that our army has retreated back, no chance remains of sending them succor, and terrible responsibility rests on those having charge of this matter that the object of the flag of truce was not more successful. Some were seen whose limbs were commencing to mortify for want of dressing, and who were faint and almost famished from hunger and thirst. Those who visited the field of battle were not allowed to proceed beyond where the heaviest fighting took place; and no troops or guns could be seen except a number of cavalry, who were scattered all over the hills, and who were all willing to converse freely with our soldiers and citizens who accompanied the ambulance train. They unanimously say they will soon drive us from Virginia, and even into the Free States, and will endeavor to let us feel the war by making a portion of our land resemble that part of Virginia over which the armies have passed and repassed the last six months.

On returning to Centreville, it was found that a fight had taken place somewhere in our rear, and everything was bustle and excitement, the troops getting under way for the scene, trains moving off, &c., while many had already gone.

It seems that during the forenoon, reports reached headquarters that a movement was on foot to attack our trains, and KEYES' Division was ordered to proceed to Fairfax and take a position to the west of that town, to prevent any demonstration of the enemy.

About noon the rebels were discovered approaching from that direction, when skirmishing commenced, and our troops formed in line of battle, word being sent to headquarters and additional forces sent to the spot. The rebels attacked with a large body of infantry, but were repulsed in gallant style by our forces present, consisting of KING's and RICKETT's Divisions, Pennsylvania Reserves and some others. The rebels had batteries concealed in the woods and when our forces drove the rebels back to where they were placed, they opened with grape, which made terrible destruction in our ranks for a short time. But our guns getting into position the rebels were compelled to leave, suffering heavy losses.

It is impossible to obtain particulars at present, but the lists of casualties will be forwarded as soon as possible. The enemy's force was very strong, and commanded by JACKSON in person, and, had the attack not been promptly met, our communication with Washington would again have been cut off, and immense trains of wagons either captured or destroyed.

During last night all our trains succeeded in making their way back to the vicinity of Alexandria, and acres of land there are now covered with them. The troops along the whole line were under arms all night, but nothing has occurred up to this hour (5 A. M.,) to indicate the presence of the enemy.

It will seem strange to the public that so many attempts to cut off our supplies and communication with Washington should be so nearly successful, especially when such a large army as that of POPE at the present time occupies the country in the vicinity. Loud complaints are heard daily, among both officers and men, at the inefficiency of certain Commanders, and it is evident the men are becoming dissatisfied, and losing faith in those in whom they should have the utmost confidence.

Large crowds of stragglers continually line the roads in the rear of our army, the sidewalks, stoops and yards of houses in Alexandria and neighborhood being filled with them every night; and unless some change is made to insure better discipline, both among officers and men, the worst consequences to our army may be anticipated.

No anxiety need be felt for the safety of our forces in Virginia, as heavy reinforcements are continually moving to the seat of war, and an army will soon be in the field which will drive the rebels back to Richmond.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

[OFFICIAL.]

WAR BULLETINS.

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON, Aug. 29, 1862.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 119.—The following orders are published for the information and government of all concerned:

ORDER RESPECTING TRADE REGULATIONS.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 28, 1862.

The attention of all officers and others connected with the army of the United States is called to the regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, concerning commercial intercourse with insurrectionary States or sections, dated Aug. 28, 1862.

First—Commandants of departments, divisions and posts will render all such military aid as may become necessary in carrying out the provisions of said regulations, and enforcing observance thereof, to the extent directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, so far as can possibly be done without danger to the operations or safety of their respective commands.

Second—There will be no interference with trade in or shipment of cotton, or other merchandise conducted in pursuance of said regulations within any territory occupied and controlled by the forces of the United States, unless absolutely necessary to the successful execution of military plans or movements therein. But, in cases of violation of the conditions of any clearance or permit granted under said regulations, and in cases of unlawful traffic, the guilty party or parties will be arrested, and the facts promptly reported to the commandant of the department, for orders.

Third—No officer of the army, or other persons connected therewith, will seize cotton or other property of individuals unless exposed to destruction by the enemy, or needed for military purposes, or for confiscation under the act of Congress; and, in all such cases of seizures the same shall be promptly reported to the commandant of the department wherein they are made for his orders therein.

By order of the Secretary of War.

E. D. TOWNSEND,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

A NEW COMMAND FOR GEN. McCLELLAN.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON, Sept. 2, 1862.

By direction of the President, Major-Gen. McCLELLAN will have command of the fortifications of Washington, and of all the troops for the defence of the Capital.

By order of the Secretary of War.

E. D. TOWNSEND, Asst. Adj.-Gen.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Sept. 2.

THE PROMOTION OF GEN. MITCHEL.

The supersedence of Gen. HUNTER in his command, as announced, to-day, in the Star, gives great point to the inquiry, how it happened that the first information of his removal should have reached the Northern public through one of JEFF. DAVIS' official fulminations. It is a new evidence that the rebels continue to have access to our most important secrets, and by indicating the existence of treason in official stations. It illustrates the astounding confidence with which the rebels now conduct their offensive military movements.

STATE OF FEELING IN WASHINGTON.

The tone of sentiment in Washington during the conflict raging at Manassas has been calm and confident beyond what could be expected. Before any accounts of the fighting reached us, the public seemed to feel an instinctive belief that all was going well. Even during Sunday, while reports were adverse, there was nothing in the shape of panic; and even under the influence of fuller and more reliable accounts, public confidence has returned to its original stability. Never before, during such a crises, has Washington been so free from alarm; and I chronicle this fact with the greatest satisfaction, that it indicates willingness on the part of an intelligent and quick-sighted community to confide in Government, just in proportion to the indications it gives of resolution and vigor.

CARE FOR THE WOUNDED.

As a specimen of the general industry of citizens here in providing for the care of wounded soldiers, clerks in the office of the Paymaster-General are employed all day long in preparing bandages for the hospitals. They have raised several hundred dollars by private contribution for the purchase of linen for this purpose. Whatever justice there may have been heretofore in impugning the loyalty of citizens of this city, it is so no longer. Though an occasional rebel reveals his sympathies, yet the cases are almost too few for remark.

H. M. PIERCE, President of Rutgers Institute in New-York City, has been appointed General Superintendent of Hospital Nurses in the Military District of Washington, and has entered on the discharge of his duties.

All applications from persons desirous of acting as nurses for our wounded should be made to him at the Surgeon General's office.

VOLUNTEER SURGEONS.

Volunteer Surgeons in great numbers have arrived to attend upon the wounded; about a hundred arrived this morning, mostly from New-York. This movement has been made under the inspiration of Secretary STANTON, and after arriving the volunteers find that they can with difficulty get a detail. They were even told that their services were not needed and that free passes would be given to them to return to their homes. But finally arrangements have been made for their employment, and means are being provided for sending many of them into Virginia.

ARMY ITEMS.

By direction of the President, Col. GUSTAVE WAAGNER, Second Regiment New-York Volunteer Artillery, is dismissed from the service for habitual drunkenness.

A general Court-martial is appointed to meet at West Point, New-York, on the 3d of September, 1862, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the trial of certain cadets and such other prisoners as may be brought before it.

Lieut. LAWRENCE BABBITT, of the Ordnance Department, is relieved from duty in the army of the Potomac, and will report for duty to the commanding officer at Washington Arsenal.

Major HALPINE, Assistant Adjutant-General of Volunteers, is assigned to duty at the headquarters of the army.

Lieut.-Col. HASKIN, Aid-de-Camp, is relieved from duty with Gen. BARNARD, and ordered to report to Gen. McCLELLAN.

By direction of the President, all the clerks and employes of the civil departments, and all the employes in the public buildings in Washington will be immediately organized into companies under the direction of Brig.-Gen. WADSWORTH, and will be armed and supplied with ammunition for the defence of the Capital.

Capt. SWEET was not killed, as reported, but Capt. SMEED, of the Fifth Artillery.

The Georgetown Seminary Hospital is appropriated exclusively to sick and wounded officers of the army.

The Massachusetts Relief Association, as well as similar ones, are doing good service in attending to the sick and other business connected with wounded soldiers.

Gen. McCLELLAN to-day entered upon the duties just assigned to him.

Quartermaster WOOD has just arrived with the body of Col. FLETCHER WEBSTER, which was recovered from the enemy by means of a flag of truce. It will be embalmed and sent home.

Gen. TAYLOR's body was sent North this evening. Washington is full of officers who exhibit no appearance of physical disability, but are voluble in excuses for their absence from their commands. Their presence here reflects no credit on the service.

The Patent-office and Capitol Building are to-night being fitted up for hospital purposes. Numbers of wounded have been sent North, but their places are immediately filled up by fresh arrivals.

The rebels have retained but few of our wounded, which fell into their hands, but have sent them back under parole. The worst have not yet arrived. All here receive best attention and bear their sufferings with greatest fortitude.

The body of Gen. KEARNEY has just arrived in the city, having been sent into our lines by Gen. LEE under flag of truce. Gen. BLENKER states that the body bears no evidence of being wounded.

The death of Gen. STAHL is positively contradicted by Gen. BLENKER.

The saloons have been closed in this city to-day, in accordance with orders of the Provost-Marshal. Much dissatisfaction results on the part of many gentlemen of leisure habits.

The body of Gen. STEVENS, in Alexandria, will be embalmed. He was instantly killed by a Minie ball passing through his brain, while bearing the colors in his hand—the Color-Sergeant having been killed.

MORE PRIZES.

The United States steamer Hatteras captured, while trying to run the blockade of Berwick Bay, the rebel schooner Josephine, with 322 bales of cotton, bound for Havana.

The United States steamer Bienville captured, on the 21st ultimo, near Charleston, schooner Eliza, from Nassau, with 500 sacks of salt and five cases cards. The mate admitted that it was their intention to run the blockade.

The United States steamer Stars and Stripes captured, on the 24th ultimo, near Wilmington, the schooner Elizabeth, from Nassau, loaded with salt and fruit to Philadelphia.

THE INTERNAL REVENUE.

Parties making remittances to the Commissioner of Interval Revenue ordering stamps for proprietary articles, such as patent medicines, perfumery, &c., should remember that no funds can be received excepting specie, treasury notes and drafts on the several United States depositaries.

Col. FLETCHER WEBSTER's body, it is understood, is being embalmed, for transmission East.

FROM NORFOLK.

Reliable accounts from Norfolk represent Gen. VIELE's conciliatory policy there as a total failure; secession rampant, and National power often openly defied.

Mr. ARNOLD, Congressional representative from the Chicago District, is here to stimulate inquiry in regard to the necessity and feasibility of a ship canal connecting Lake Michigan and the Mississippi River.

LIQUOR ESTABLISHMENTS CLOSED UP.

The Provost Guard is busy closing up all the liquor establishments in the city. Their captures are sent to the Medical Purveyor's Office.

There is evidently much secret excitement among the Federal officers in this place, and the Secesh are rejoicing over what they claim to be a defeat in the late army movements under Gen. POPE.

A part of the James River flotilla has left this afternoon and proceeded off in the direction of the Potomac.

EVACUATION OF FREDERICKSBURGH.

Destruction of the Bridges, &c.—The March to Aquia Creek.

Safety of the Whole Command and its Materiel.

FREDERICKSBURGH, Va., Sunday, Aug. 31, 1862.

The last day of August brings with it a reminder that we have reached the end of the Summer solstice, as we seem to have reached a crisis in the campaign against Richmond. A heavy rain, which continued during the fore part of the day, admonishes us that the Fall rains will soon be upon us, and with them that there will be an end to all effective use of Virginia roads. Narrow, steep, crooked, sticky and stony, one day's hard rain is sufficient to render them almost impassable for wagons and artillery. The necessity of locking wheels while going down steep places, scoops out deep holes in the roads, which soon become reservoirs of water, and grow into gullies and holes, which test the skill of drivers and the strength of the best army-wagons to pass safely through. To-day the roads are simply execrable, and two days more of rain would more effectually cut off our "retrograde movement," than the most effective rebel force in the rear.

Under the orders of the War Department, Gen. BURNSIDE might have vacated this place a week ago; but reluctant to abandon a position which has been so long held, and which has been deemed of so great strategetical importance—and which might still become so—he has moved with great deliberation, and has finally consented to fall back in strict conformity to orders—not on account of the threatening attitude of the enemy's forces.

Meantime all the regimental baggage, materiel of war and army stores have been carefully sent away, and are saved. It is the first apparent retrograde movement of Gen. BURNSIDE, but I do not believe he regards it as in any sense a retreat. The motives of it, if I knew them, I would not be at liberty to reveal.

Suffice it to say Fredericksburgh has been abandoned; the three bridges, which were constructed for connecting the two banks of the river for our own use, have been destroyed; the railroad buildings on the Falmouth side, including the offices of Post-Commissary and Quartermaster, with a small amount of stores only, have been consumed by fire; the machine-shop and foundry in the town of Fredericksburgh, formerly used to so good advantage by the rebels, but more recently occupied as a repairing shop for our engines and railroad, has been blown up, and the large bakery establishment at Falmouth has also been burned. So far as this position is concerned it is now being converted into a "howling wilderness" for the occupation of the rebel army, now spon to return, no doubt, to the place. The citizens of the town were surprised while on their way to church in the afternoon, by dense volumes of smoke arising over our encampment. In fact, I was surprised myself, and received the fact as a gentle token that I had better pay my livery stable and board bill, and transfer my interests to the northern bank of the Rappahannock. On looking about me, I found an unusual commotion once more among the people of African descent in the town, and a decided tendency of the tide of emigration toward the wire bridge, which runs from the foot of William-street. Knots of Secessionists congregate at the corners of the street, but particularly opposite the bridges, to witness the exodus of the white as well as the black population. Several Union families, who have recently been watched and threatened, took the smoky hint, and packed up. Ladies, dressed in their Sunday-go-to-meeting, looked out of their windows, or congregated on the house-tops, to see the Yankees go out, and Stonewall JACKSON come in. After so long and grievous a suspense, and hopes deferred, who could grudge them this hour of elysium. I met on the bridge pioneers with axes, and barrels of tar which they were industriously plastering along the walk, to render the structure the more inflammable. There were also piles of chips and rubbish deposited in the wooden frame-work which crowned the different stone abutments and sustained the wire cables which held up the bridge. In a few minutes more the torch would be applied, and—a handsome bonfire light the pious rebels the way to church.

As yet, however, the Provost Guard occupied the town, and the Eighth Connecticut were on picket duty, ten miles on the way to Richmond, scattered along the Bowling Green, the plank and telegraph roads.

On reaching headquarters, at the Lacey House, I found all the tents had been struck; the ambulance and army wagons were hitched up; officers' horses were all saddled for a start, and everything betokened a decided movement. Infantry regiments stood in line upon the wide plain fronting headquarters; long lines of wagons and artillery occupied the main road, and cavalry men sat in their saddles ready for the word "march." In the midst of this scene the commanding General was observed walking leisurely to and fro, dispatching orders to the different regiments, and watching in calm silence the movements of the various commands. It was indeed an hour of deep interest and concern to him. For days and nights he had watched with sleepless vigilance every movement of our own and the enemy's forces, as they affected his own position, and something of weariness could be detected in his usual elastic step. At this juncture a poor woman with three lovely children clinging to her side came up the hill and passed through the gate, bringing each of them some little article of household furniture. The quick eye of the General immediately recognized her as an excellent Union lady, of Fredericksburgh, who was escaping with her children and little effects from the town. "Have you anything else down at the bridge, Madam?" asked the General. "Only a bed and a few small articles, Sir," she timidly answered. "Send down an ambulance, wagon-master, and have them brought up and carried to the depôt," was the General's orders, and it was done. In a few minutes the poor widow had the pleasure of seeing all her remaining goods safely deposited on the cars for Aquia Creek.

Meantime, all other arrangements having been completed, a mounted orderly was sent to the point to order the Eighth Connecticut, on picket duty, to retire. Col. HARLAN accordingly ordered his men to fall in, and they immediately fell back on the town. When they reached the river, the railroad and wire bridges were already on fire, and they went down and crossed on the only remaining bridge—that constructed of canalboats—at the lower part of the town. The Provost Guard had already been ordered to vacate the town. Shortly after 5 o'clock P. M. the torch was applied to the railroad station, which was already well consumed before the bridges were fired. Shortly before this was done, the Sixth New-York Cavalry came in from the direction of Barnett's Ford, and reported that an ambulance and wagon train which overtook them on the road was hurrying forward with great speed, and reported that the rebels in considerable force were behind them, having crossed just above, and were pressing on their rear. General BURNSIDE and Staff were the last to leave the ground, after seeing everything safely off, and proceeding along the road. The railroad train was filled with people, white and black, with their household goods, ready to move off. In this connection, it ought to be mentioned, to the great credit of the engineers, conductor and employes on the Aquia Creek Railroad, that they have been incessantly engaged, night and day, for a week past, in transporting goods and passengers to and fro on this road. Scarcely no hour of the night or day but one could hear the toot of the steam-whistle. Their kindness and considerate treatment of the poor contraband exiles, with their cart-loads of duds, also entitle them to the gratitude of the good everywhere. I regret that I do not know their names, to mention them in this place.

The march from the river to Aquia Creek was very difficult, and occupied the whole night. The roads, flooded by the morning rains, and cut up by incessant travel of animals, vehicles and cannon, were almost impassable in some places. Gen. BURNSIDE kept along with the train, and seemed always in the place where there was the most difficulty. On several occasions he dismounted, and standing leg deep in mud, put his shoulder to the wheels, and called on the men to imitate his example, in order to extricate the ambulances and wagons from deep holes in which they had become stalled. One ambulance was upset near Station No. 9, and three or four persons who were in it narrowly escaped being killed. One or two other teams were disabled by the breaking of axles or whiffletrees, but nothing of a serious character occurred on the road.

By daylight nearly the whole of the immense train was safely through the hills, and encamped within sight of the landing. Without waiting for sleep, an hour of which he has scarcely experienced for forty-eight hours, Gen. BURNSIDE rode up to the hillsides overlooking the place, and selected positions where batteries were planted to enfilade the approach to the landing.

As an additional protection, four gunboats lie at anchor within easy shot of the roads which must be passed in approaching the position. Gen. BURNSIDE's Division is all right. Further this deponent saith not.

THE WOUNDED IN PRIVATE HOUSES.

Many private houses are thrown open to wounded soldiers, among which is that of Hon. ISAAC NEWTON, who returned from the field, and has given up his whole house, and, with his lady, are caring for every want. If every housekeeper here would act as nobly, we could care for all our own, and put the enemy's in the large hospitals. Those in Mr. Newton's House, Third and C streets, are: Lieut. H. P. Owens, Co. D, 48th Penn. Vol., wounded; Wm. A. Wiley, Co. D, 2d Va., wounded; Marcellus Chase, Co. A, 7th Wis., wounded; Capt. Woodis, Co. E, 16th Mass., wounded; Lieut. R. A. Stanton, Co. K, 5th Excelsior, wounded; H. F. Riley, Co. G, 1st Mass., wounded; Dewey Kirby, Co. I, 10th Mass., wounded; Jacob Hornbake, Co. I, 2d Va., wounded; Harrison Leggett, Co. H, 23d Ohio, wounded; Edwin F. Beavelheimer, Co. A, 19th Ind., wounded; Lieut. R. D. Andrews, Co. F, 5th Excelsior, wounded; Capt. E. A. Harrison, Co. H, 5th Excelsior, wounded; Lieut. M. A. Ducey, Co. H, 5th Excelsior, wounded; Sergt. Morris Sheehan, Co. A, 7th Wis., wounded; Jno. M. Bartholomew, Co. A, 7th Wis., wounded; Sergt. Babcock, Co. D, 5th Excelsior, wounded. A. Douglas, J. Uphell, 7th Wis.; Lieut. J. R. Darrocott, 16th Mass., are all killed.

An Expert Burglar in Warren-street—$6,000 Worth of Silks Stolen.

One of the most skillful burglaries which have taken place for a long time in this City, was committed last Sunday, at the store of Messrs. E. H. ARNOLD & Co., Commission Merchants, No. 81 Warren-street. When the porter opened the store on Monday morning last, he found numerous bales and boxes of goods missing, and many of those remaining had been broken open, and a portion of their contents taken away; the remnants were strewed around in great disorder. He was not long in ascertaining the fact that the burglars had entered the store by cigging a hole through the wall from the building adjoining, No. 79 Warren-street. The police were immediately notified, and Capt. MOUNT of the Third Precinct, was very soon on hand, and made a thorough survey of the premises. The building No. 79 Warren-street was, previous to last May, occupied as the Third Precinct Police Station. Since that time it has been used as a tenement house. About the middle of last week, a man who said he resided with his family on the corner of Tenth-avenue and Forty-ninth-street, hired a room on the first floor of the building, adjoining the store of ARNOLD & Co., for the purpose, as he represented it, of an office. He soon after moved in the only furniture found in the room, which consisted of an old wardrobe and table. When Capt. MOUNT visited the premises on Monday, he found the door of this room locked, and the only way he could gain an entrance was through the "hole in the wall" from the store to this office. Here he found twenty-three empty boxes, all of which had been conveyed from the store, through the opening in the partition, to the room of the burglars. In this room there was much to indicate that more than one person had been engaged in the burglary. About $100 worth of goods were found in the apartment by Capt. MOUNT, mostly remnants, which had evidently been left by the thieves in their haste to evacuate the premises. The Captain also found a large number of burglars' tools, such as jimmies, knives, augers, &c. Detective FARLEY has been associated with Capt. MOUNT in the effort to secure the stolen property and arrest the guilty parties, but up to a late hour last evening no person had been taken into custody. A reward of $800 has been offered by Messrs. ARNOLD & Co. for the recovery of the stolen goods and the arrest of the burglars.

A Serious Case of Abortion and Homicide.

TWO PROMINENT PHYSICIANS ARRESTED UPON SUSPICION—PARTICULARS OF THE CORONER'S INQUEST.

Coroner NAUMANN was yesterday engaged in holding an inquest upon the body of a German woman, named CATHARINE GALEFZEIR, 30 years of age, who was found dead at No. 21 West Thirteenth-street, at an early hour yesterday morning. She proves to have been the wife of a soldier who has seen active service for the last year, and the circumstances as detailed by the witnesses upon the inquest, are certainly of a character to excite the sympathies of all whose attention is called to them.

The following parties have been arrested, and such is the nature of the evidence that Coroner NAUMANN has seen fit to hold them all. Dr. ABRAM COX, corner of Leroy and Bedford streets; Dr. HUNTING SHERRILL, of Hudson-street, CATHARINE JOHNSON, No. 21 Thirty-first-street, JULIA TRUEHEART and her husband, of No. 35 Canal-street, also WINNEFIELD GIBSON. The latter was a servant of Mrs. JOHNSON, the lady who kept the house where the whole crime is supposed to have been consummated—No. 21 West Thirty-first-street.

Three witnesses were examined yesterday by Coroner NAUMANN, and so far as can be gathered from evidence thus far, there is no doubt but that a great crime has been committed, not only by the producing of an abortion, but that the life of a very respectable woman has been sacrificed. It all that is reported be true, this is one of the boldest and most unjustifiable cases of abortion which has taken place for a long time past. The Coroner's investigation is adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning, when it is believed that evidence implicating some physicians high in the confidence of the public will then be given. A post-mortem examination made by Deputy Coroner ROBINSON shows the fact that the woman's death was caused by foul means, and the infant, which was found in the sink, is evidence that there is great guilt resting upon some one.

Operation of the New Tax Law.

The machinery of that ponderous structure—the new general Tax law—seems to be hard to set in motion. Very great uncertainty still prevails among the reputed officers who are to act under the bill, and although a list of the names of Assessors and Collectors appointed for the Southern District of this State has been published, the great majority of the gentlemen therein designated are yet in ignorance as to the confirmation of their appointments. Of the whole bulk of commissions already due, only a few of those for the rural districts have been received at the office of the United States District-Attorney. These are for the Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fifteenth, Seventeenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first and Twenty-sixth Districts, or but eight in all. Neither Collectors nor Assessors have had any conference or general meeting, nor have they any central office or rallying point whatever. In fact, the greater number of these gentlemen are quite in the dark as to their future proceedings, and the questions of anxious inquirers elicit among them only a helpless stare of perplexity.

Why the City commissions do not arrive is a puzzle even to the United States authorities here, who should, under ordinary circumstances, be most promptly and thoroughly informed. Our citizens at large are really so in respect to the modus operandi and the probable period of the coming assessments.

In one District—the Ninth—the arrangements, we are informed, will be as satisfactory to the public as they can possibly be made. Among the crowds of applicants for outside assessorships, only those men will be selected who combine perfect patience and suavity of manner with strict discharge of duty. All unnecessary roughness or unpleasantness will be sternly prohibited, and the tax pill will be sugar-coated, as far as the operation is possible. Messrs. KETCHUM and FRANKLIN, the Collector and Assessor for that District, will have their offices in the same building, and will be constantly in attendance to answer the inquiries and objections of citizens.

It has been proposed to have all the Collectors' and Assessors' offices in one edifice, selected for the purpose; but this proposition does not meet with general approval, as such an arrangement, it is thought, would lead to great public inconvenience and embarrassment. A central place of conference will, however, undoubtedly be selected.

For the present, it must be said that the mill is not yet in grinding order.

Mayor's Office.

OUR CITY SURGEONS.

The rush of surgeons, physicians and nurses volunteering for service at the National capital, and on the fields of recent battle, continues toward the Mayor's Office with unabated earnestness. In addition to the detachment of 42 in number that started for Washington on Sunday night, and the host who volunteered on Monday, very many more followed the good example yesterday. Mr. SMITH, the Mayor's Secretary, has caused a list of the names of these well-deserving gentlemen to be prepared, in view of any further call by the Government.

The following telegrams speak handsomely for the manner in which the promptitude exhibited by our authorities and medical corps is appreciated at Washington, and the excellent service they are rendering to the country.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.

Hon. George Opdyke, Mayor of New-York:

Your volunteer corps has arrived, is organized and ready for active service. Its field and plan of labor are acceptable to all. Thousands of our wounded are yet inaccessible. Your Corps will commence duty with forty surgeons and assistants.

ELISHA HARRIS.

Another telegram from Dr. HARRIS indicates further action. It is also dated on the 1st inst.:

"No more surgeons needed for the next two days. Keep a record of the officers, as they may be required at short notice."

The third one, also from the same source, betrays the extensive character of the sad work presented to that branch of our public charity:

SIR: 1.—"It is officially ordered that the Capitol and grounds be occupied by the wounded under the exclusive professional care of the volunteer corps of New-York City physicians. The Executive Committee, consisting of Drs. DETMOLD, STONE and HALSTEAD lead this enterprise earnestly. The Government is now getting in the beds, etc. Our corps is all to go to work immediately."

The ...previously adopted by the Board, offering a bounty of $50 to volunteers for the war, and appropriating $250,000 therefor, was returned from the other Board, with an amendment increasing the appropriation to $500,000, and as amended was concurred in by this Board. The ordinance appropriating $10,000 to each of the militia regiments that shall volunteer for the nine months' service, was also concurred in, after which the Board adjourned.

Hospital Accommodations Around New-York—Beds for 2,500 Soldiers Now Ready.

Dr. SLOAN, Medical Director of this station, has received notice from the War Department to immediately furnish accommodations, if practicable, for 2,000 sick and wounded soldiers. Fortunately, owing to the large numbers that have recently been discharged from the various hospitals in this vicinity, he is able to comply with the requisition, and will still have accommodations left. Beds are now vacant in the different hospitals to the number of 2,200, and within two or three days it is expected that 300 more soldiers will be discharged from David's Island. The following are the number of beds now vacant in the different hospitals: David's Island, 1,200; Newark, 364; Ladies' Home, 20; Brooklyn City Hospital, 90; Bedloe's Island, 150; Jews' Hospital, 5; Bellevue, 300; Long Island College Hospital, 80, besides a considerable number at the hospital on Blackwell's Island.

Grand Encampment of Knights Templar.

The Triennial Meeting of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States was held yesterday, at Odd Fellows' Hall, at 10 o'clock. The following is a list of the officers of the Grand Encampment:

Sir Knight Benjamin Brown French, Commissioner of Public Buildings, Washington City, D. C., Most Excellent Grand Commander; Sir Knight Goodhue, of Kentucky, Deputy Grand Commander; Sir Knight Winslow Lewis, of Massachusetts, Very Excellent Grand Generalissimo; Sir Knight McMurdy, D. D., L.L. D., of Virginia, Grand Prelate; Sir Knight Zenas C. Priest, of New-York, Grand Senior Warden; Sir Knight Pierson, of Minnesota, Grand Junior Warden; Sir Knight Simons, of New-York, Grand Treasurer; Sir Knight Caldwell, of Ohio, Grand Secretary; Sir Knight Thompson, of Maine, Grand Standard Bearer; Sir Knight Stevens, of the District of Columbia, Grand Warden, and Sir Knight George Downing, of New-York, Grand Chaplain.

After the ordinary routine of business, an invitation was presented on behalf of the Grand Commander of the State of New-York, requesting the members to accept of a banquet at the St. Nicholas Hotel this evening. The invitation was accepted.

After which the Most Eminent Commander delivered an eloquent, interesting and patriotic address, the matter of which was not, however, of general public interest. The banquet will be partaken of this evening at the St. Nicholas.

GENERAL CITY NEWS.

DEATH OF JAMES GOVE KING.—Mr. JAS. G. KING, of this City, and a member of the Junior Class in Harvard, having deceased, his fellow-students, at a meeting held Aug. 30, passed unanimously the following resolutions:

Whereas, It has pleased Divine Providence to remove from among us our much-honored and beloved classmate, JAMES GOVE KING, of New-York,

Resolved, That while we bow in submission to the Divine will, we deeply mourn the loss of a warm friend and a genial companion, and we shall always delight in the memories of our past intercourse with one whose generosity and nobleness of character rendered peculiarly endearing his relations to us as classmate.

Resolved, That in our own deep sorrow, we respectfully sympathize with his bereaved family.

Resolved, That the Class wear the usual badge of respect for thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased.

MEETING OF FRUIT-GROWERS.—A considerable number of fruit-growers, amateurs and others, residing in the vicinity of the City, have thought it desirable to come together, at some point in the lower or business portion of the City, once a week or so, to examine and talk over the merits of the different fruits, as they come into season. Such meetings are held in Boston, New-Haven and elsewhere, and have proved useful and interesting. They give opportunity to discuss and become acquainted with the merits and demerits of different varieties before the public. The first meeting is proposed to be held at 1 o'clock P. M., on Thursday of this week, at the Agricultural Rooms, No. 41 Park Row, when the time and place of future meetings will be decided upon. All interested in fruits, especially actual cultivators, are invited to be present, and bring along specimens of any fruits they may have just in season.

A SOLDIER DROWNED.—About 10 o'clock on Monday night, a soldier belonging to the First Regiment of New-York Mounted Rifles, named LEROY G. SMITH, accidentally fell into the water at Pier No. 11 East River, and was drowned before assistance could be rendered. The body was recovered yesterday, and Coroner COLLIN held an inquest thereon. Verdict—Accidental drowning.

BROOKLYN NEWS.

The Kings County Board of Supervisors.

ANOTHER APPROPRIATION OF $150,000 FOR BOUNTIES—$75,000 VOTED FOR THE RELIEF OF FAMILIES OF VOLUNTEERS.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of taking action in relation to the payment of bounties to volunteers, the time for paying the county bounty having expired on Saturday evening last. Of the $240,000 heretofore appropriated for the purpose, $31,320 remained to the credit of the Committee. There being no authority to expend the balance, it was necessary to call a special meeting with the view of adopting such measures as might be required under the circumstances.

The Chairman, Supervisor CROOKE, presided.

After the disposal of a few communications, the subject for which the meeting was called was taken up.

Mr. TALBOT desired to know if the bounty of $60 would be continued, and spoke in favor of instructing the Committee to pay bounties until the money appropriated was exhausted.

Mr. CROOKE stated that the bounty had been authorized for a specific purpose, which was to give an impetus to volunteering in order to raise our quota by a certain time. That had been accomplished on Saturday night, when the quota under the first call, as he believed, was filled. He contended that there must be some limit to paying bounties, or it might be continued for years.

Mayor KALBFLEISCH offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee having the matter in charge continue the payment of the bounty to volunteers until the balance of the money is expended, or until the quota of volunteers required under the call of the President be filled.

Mr. PRATT thought it impolitic to stop the bounty at this time.

Mr. HANLEY said that, as Col. CONE's regiment was full and required no more recruits, the proper course would be to fill up the Empire Brigade. He offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That $60 bounty be continued to be paid by the Committee of this Board, to all recruits enlisting in the Empire Brigade, until the maximum number be enlisted in said Brigade.

Mayor KALBFLEISCH objected to the substitute. The Governor had authorized a number of gentlemen to recruit another regiment, and the probability was that the men were needed—that more soldiers were wanted. If 100,000 men were required to-day, they should be furnished. If double the number was asked for, to-morrow, they should be forthcoming. Everything should be done to crush out the rebellion and end the war.

Mr. TALBOT was in favor of giving bounty to men who enlisted in any of the regiments raised in this county, and he believed the people would cheerfully give more money for the purpose. More than 3,000 men had been raised during the last three weeks, and if the inducements continued 3,000 more could be enlisted within the next three weeks. We would thus avoid the possibility of a draft. He moved that an additional appropriation of $100,000 be made.

Mr. PRATT moved to lay Mr. HANLEY's substitute on the table, which was carried.

Mr. HAZZARD stated that at a meeting of the Ward Committee this morning, they recommended a further appropriation for bounties. He was opposed to favoring any one regiment at the expense of another, and thought bounties should be paid to all. In the Sixth and Tenth Wards a great movement was now on foot to raise Senator MURPHY's regiment.

Mr. HANLEY said the money unappropriated would be no aid to a new regiment, while it would be sufficient to fill up the Empire Brigade.

Mr. BOOTH said there was sufficient money on hand to pay 520 recruits, and up to this time there were 300 claimants for bounties whose papers appeared to be right. He had no doubt that the entire balance would be claimed by persons who had enlisted within the last two weeks.

Mr. CROOKE stated that the object in offering the bounty was to obtain men speedily, so as to fill our quota by the 1st of September, and this had been accomplished, the Chairman of the Committee having signed 3,000 checks since the 16th of August. He spoke of the system of paying bounties as demoralizing and dangerous to the military spirit of the country, and proceeded to explain the system of swindling which had been introduced by means of these bounties—one was to give in a fictitious name, and draw the money, the papers being correct on the face. One man had called twice for his bounty, but having forgotten the name

...ted, That the Common Council has learned with profound regret of the decease of William J. Brisley, who departed this life on Sunday, the twenty-fourth ultimo, after a short but painful illness; and

Whereas, The late William J. Brisley, during the years eighteen hundred and fifty-two and eighteen hundred and fifty-three represented the Ninth Ward of this City in the Common Council as Alderman, where, by his earnest and devoted services as a legislator, combined with his magnanimity of temper, urbanity and disinterestedness, he endeared himself to all with whom he was associated in every capacity during a well spent life; be it, therefore,

Resolved, That this Common Council, deeply sympathizing with the afflicted family and friends of the deceased, do hereby tender them our sincere condolence; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions, duly authenticated, be engrossed and transmitted to the family of the deceased.

Which was adopted.

By Alderman Froment—

Whereas, under the recent proclamation of the President of the United States, calling for volunteers from the uniformed militia, to defend the Nation against the assaults of a desperate foe in arms against its authority, the City of New-York again responded to the call, thousands of her best and bravest sons instantly taking up arms and repairing to the scene of threatened danger—thus a second time asserting their devotion to the flag of the country; and, inasmuch as such militia regiments, having performed the duties assigned them, have been honorably discharged from the service, and have arrived at their homes; be it, therefore,

Resolved, That the thanks of the Common Council are in an especial manner due, and we hereby cordially tender them to the gallant officers and men composing the Seventh, Eighth, Eleventh, Twenty-second, Thirty-seventh, Sixty-ninth and Seventy-first Regiments New-York State Militia, for the promptness and alacrity displayed by them, greatly to the credit of this City, in so patriotically responding to the call of their country, as well as for their true soldierly conduct, manifested on all occasions when their services have been required.

Which was adopted.

By Alderman Froment—

Resolved, That the Street Commissioner be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to place a culvert and receiving basin on the north-west corner of Thirty-fourth-street and Lexington-avenue.

Which was referred to Committee on Sewers.

COMMUNICATIONS.

A communication was received from the City Inspector nominating William Gallagher as Health Warden of the Twelfth Ward, in place of Dennis Walsh, deceased; Alfred Gettoe as Assistant Health Warden of the Twelfth Ward, in place of Isaac Vermilcy, removed; James Lee, as Assistant Health Warden of the Seventh Ward, in place of Charles M. Borchers, removed; Robert C. Wiltsie as Health Warden of the Sixteenth Ward, in place of John Glastarter, removed.

Alderman Boole moved that the nominations made by the City Inspector be confirmed, and upon his motion called the previous question.

Alderman Dayton moved to lay the call of the previous question on the table.

Which was lost on a division by the following vote:

Affirmative—Aldermen Chipp, Dayton, Frear, Froment—4.

Negative—Aldermen Smith, Walsh, the President, Hall, Reed, Chipp, Mitchell, Dayton, Jeremiah, Frear, Boole, Allen, Ottiwell, Farley—13.

The question then being, shall the main question be now put?

Alderman Dayton moved to adjourn.

The President ruled the motion out of order.

The motion of Alderman Boole was put and carried on a division:

Affirmative—Aldermen Smith, Walsh, The President, Reed, Mitchell, Jeremiah, Boole, Ottiwell, Farley—9.

Negative—Aldermen Hall, Chipp, Dayton, Frear, Allen, Froment—6.

Alderman Dayton called for a division of the question.

Which was lost.

The question then recurring upon the confirmation of the nominations of the City Inspector for Health Warden and Assistant Health Warden.

The same was confirmed on a division by the following vote:

Affirmative—Aldermen Smith, Walsh, The President, Aldermen Reed, Mitchell, Jeremiah, Boole, Allen, Ottiwell Farley—10.

Negative—Aldermen Hall, Chipp, Dayton, Frear Froment—5.

A communication was received from the Croton Aqueduct Department, inviting the members of the Board of Aldermen to be witness the introduction of Croton water into the new reservoir on the nineteenth instant.

Which was read and ordered on file.

A communication was received from S. Draper, President of the Department of Public Charities and Correction, relative to the want of proper landing place on Ward's Island.

Which was referred to Committee on Wharves, Piers and Slips.

A communication was received from the Street Commissioner, transmitting estimates and awards of contracts,

Which was carried.

Alderman Farley moved to recommit the matter to the Committee.

Which was carried.

PAPERS FROM BOARD OF COUNCILMEN.

An ordinance of Board of Aldermen to promote the speedy recruitment of the several regiments of volunteers from the City of New-York, now in active service of the Government at the seat of war.

In Board of Councilmen, September second, amended as follows:

Add to the first section, after the word "Union," the words following, to wit: "and also for the purpose of filling up such regiments or brigades as are now organizing for the war in this City."

Add to the first section, after the words "now at the seat of war," the words following, to wit: "or organizing for the war."

Add to the first section, after the word "respectively," the words following, to wit: "or their duly authorized representatives."

Add to the second section, after the word "personally," the words following, to wit: "or by their duly authorized representatives."

Strike from the fourth section the year "eighteen hundred and sixty-three," and insert in lieu thereof the year "eighteen hundred and sixty-eight."

Add to the ordinance the following additional section:

"Section Five.—The bounty proposed to be paid by this ordinance to those who shall hereafter enlist from this City, shall not be paid after the day on which a draft is made under direction of the Governor of the State."

Section Three.—Alderman Boole moved that the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars be stricken out, and the sum of five hundred thousand dollars be inserted in lieu thereof.

Before action was taken on the above motion, Alderman Boole moved to lay the whole subject over for the present.

Which was carried.

A Committee from the Board of Councilmen here appeared and asked on behalf of the Board to be placed in possession of the above paper, whereupon Alderman Boole moved to take up the ordinance in question.

Which was carried and placed in possession of the Committee from the Board of Councilmen.

The paper having been subsequently returned by the Board of Councilmen, and the amendments having been read, the action of the Board of Councilmen was concurred in on a division.

Affirmative—Aldermen Smith, Walsh, The President, Hall, Reed, Chipp, Mitchell, Dayton, Jeremiah, Frear, Boole, Allen, Ottiwell, Froment, Farley—15.

Report of Committee on National Affairs relative to procuring the reënlistments of the three months' Militia regiments now in the field for a further term of service, and recommending the appropriation of money to the Regimental Funds of said regiments.

Board of Aldermen, August thirteenth, adopted.

Board of Councilmen, September second, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, amended as follows:

Resolved, That volunteers enlisting in those Militia regiments in this City which reorganize and are mustered into the service of the Government for three years or during the war, shall be entitled to the bounty of fifty dollars each, provided by the Corporation, under the ordinance appropriating five hundred thousand dollars for that purpose, passed by the Common Council, September second, eighteen hundred and sixty-two.

Alderman Dayton rose for the purpose of offering an amendment.

The Chair decided that an amendment could not be in order at this time.

Whereupon Alderman Dayton appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The question then being, Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Board? the Chair was sustained by the following vote, viz:

Affirmative—Aldermen Smith, Walsh, Reed, Mitchell, Jeremiah, Boole, Allen, Ottiwell, Farley—9.

Negative—Aldermen Hall, Dayton, Frear—3.

The action of the Board of Councilmen was then concurred in on a division, viz.:

Affirmative—Aldermen Smith, Walsh, The President, Hall, Reed, Chipp, Mitchell, Dayton, Jeremiah, Frear, Boole, Allen, Ottiwell, Froment, Farley—15.

Resolution to pay W. H. Gedney the sum of eighteen dollars and twenty-five cents for expenses incurred by Committee in accompanying the remains of Brigadier-General Williams from this City to Newburgh.

Which was referred to Committee on National Affairs.

On motion, the Board adjourned, and the President announced that the Board stood adjourned until next Monday, the 8th instant, at one o'clock P. M.

D. T. VALENTINE, Clerk.

TUESDAY, Sept. 2—P. M.

The Stock Market to-day continued to show much firmness under the War news of yesterday, and prices were in most instances higher on the speculative list, with a fair amount of business in the New-York and Western Roads. The latter were nearly all in demand; the strongest speculation running on Toledo, and Cleveland and Pittsburgh. The advance in Galena, Michigan Central and Illinois Central was also quite marked, and at the Second Board orders came in for both classes of Michigan Southern. New-York Central opened at 94½ and went up to 94¾ ₩ cent.; in Erie only a moderate

...business was done, the Eastern ruling nearly ½ ₩ cent. Hudson River also advanced 1@1¼ ₩ cent. The Railway Bond list was generally steady, and Government Securities about the same as yesterday afternoon. Gold fell off ¼@½ ₩ cent., and Exchange closed at 128¾, as against 129 on London, yesterday. Late in the afternoon, after the Second Board the exciting dispatches from Cincinnati and Kentucky caused a reaction of ¼@¾ ₩ cent. against the market for Stocks, and a rise in Gold to 117¼ ₩ cent., and prices finally closed about as follows, compared with Monday afternoon:

Previously reported	56,593,458	53,921,431	69,317,535
Since January 1	$60,456,915	$56,626,978	$91,827,308

This is the first week for some time in which the clearances fall below the return of the corresponding week last season. We have now better receipts of Wheat by Canal, with continued favorable orders from the other side, and the probability is that the succeeding report of Exports will be larger than the present.

The Quebec steamer from England brings the extraordinary advance of four pence sterling in Cotton, in a single week. With the present Exchange, this is equal to a rise of $35 ₩ bale! The receipts of Cotton at this port are equal to 4,000 bales a week; but hitherto the price here has kept above the export point. To-day, Middlings brought 61c.@62c. ₩ lb., and 5,000 bales were reported sold—the market closing buoyantly.

The day has been a quiet one in Money affairs. The rates to the Brokers are 4@5 ₩ cent., and on prime short discounts about 5 ₩ cent.

The August earnings on the Western Railways have not yet been officially reported, but are understood to show an increase of about $80,000 on the Illinois Central; $70,000 on the Michigan Central; $60,000 on the Michigan Southern, and nearly $40,000 on the Toledo and Wabash. Both the local and through traffic on the Illinois Central are understood to show a liberal gain, and the local business was never so good in August as during the last month. The revival of a substantial activity on the line, and the improvement in the shares in London have turned the attention of speculators to the Illinois Central Stock in this market again. The Mortgages of the Road have gone up to par. The Sinking Fund Mortgage on the Southern Michigan sold at 103 ₩ cent. to-day. The 8 ₩ cents of the Michigan Central and Burlington and Quincy are both worth 112 ₩ cent. in the market.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

We have a brief telegram from Washington, announcing that a severe engagement took place on Monday evening, at Chantilly, about two miles north of Fairfax Court-House, between a portion of Gen. POPE'S command and JACKSON'S army. It is stated that our loss was heavy, but that we succeeded in driving the enemy back a mile or more, and occupied the field of battle Tuesday morning. Gen. STEVENS was killed, while gallantly leading his command against the enemy. Gen. KEARNEY was also killed on the field of battle. His body fell into the hands of the enemy, but was subsequently delivered to us under a flag of truce. Beyond the brief telegram announcing the engagement and the loss of the two Generals, we have no particulars of the affair whatever.

Our army in Virginia, according to latest advices, has made an advance of a few miles. It is stated that a council of war was held at Centreville, on Monday, by Gens. Pope, McClellan, McDowell, Sigel, Banks, Heintzelman, Kearney, Hooker, Porter, Reno, Cox, Sumner and Sturgis, and that Gen. HALLECK approves of the plans there and then decided upon comprising a speedy advance upon the enemy by Gen. POPE and his forces. Our reinforcements are rapidly pouring in, both from the new levies and the concentration of our scattered columns, toward the scene of the recent engagements.

The rebels are losing ships and cargoes sufficiently fast now-a-days to furnish foreign shipyards and exotic rebellion sympathizers with employment for some time to come. The United States steamer Hatteras has captured the schooner Josephine, while trying to run the blockade of Berwick Bay, laden with cotton for Havana. The Bienville captured on the 21st ult., near Charleston, the schooner Eliza, from Nassau, with salt and cereals on board, and the Stars and Stripes, on the 24th ult., laid hands on another lady schooner, the Elizabeth, also from Nassau, laden with salt and fruit.

Cincinnati has been declared under martial law. The railroad cars have stopped running. Business is ordered suspended until a thorough organization for defence is made. No male citizen is allowed to leave the city. Gen. LEW. WALLACE has assumed command over Cincinnati, Covington and Newport. HUMPHREY MARSHALL is reported advancing from Piketon. Preparation are in progress for the evacuation of Cynthiana. Paris has already been evacuated.

Lexington, Ky., was evacuated by the Nationals on Monday afternoon. The Lexington operator closed his office on Monday evening, with the announcement that KIRBY SMITH was before the city, and had demanded its surrender, which was complied with by the citizens. The public archives were removed to Frankfort, and $1,000,000 in treasure from the banks of Richmond, Lexington and Frankfort has arrived at Louisville, where the headquarters of the Adjutant-General of the State are established. The greatest excitement prevails throughout that section of the State, and the Union citizens are rallying at the call of the Governor.

It is now definitely established that the fight at Bolivar on Saturday last resulted in the repulse of the rebels. Encamping a few miles from the town, they divided their force into small squads, forded the Hatchee River, and attacked Meadow Station. They succeded in losing fifty men, killed and wounded, in an incredibly short space of time. Our loss was but four. It is reported that the rebels have destroyed all the railroad bridges between Bolivar and Jackson.

It was reported at Cairo on Monday that Gen. BUELL had a fight with the rebels at Chattanooga Wednesday and Thursday. The first day's fight, it is said, turned to the advantage of neither party. The second day brought repulse to the enemy. If the telegraphic report relative to this affair may be relied upon, BUELL has taken 7,000 prisoners.

It was rumored in Nashville on Wednesday last, that a battle was fought on the previous Sunday between the National forces, under Gen. ALEX. MCCOOK, and the rebel army, under Gen. BRAGG, near Altamonte, in which BRAGG was repulsed with great slaughter.

At the bottom of the hold of the prize steamer Bermuda, now at Philadelphia, three immense rifled cannon were found on Monday, of 7½, 8 and 8½-inch bore. The shells that were found in the hold were, doubtless, intended for these guns, one of which is said to be an Armstrong gun. Alongside of these heavy pieces of ordnance were several cases of large size, supposed to contain rifles and small cannon. They have not been taken from the hold of the ship.

If an extra of the Wheeling Press, issued on Sunday, may be believed, Buckhannon, in Western Virginia, has fallen into the hands of the enemy. It was taken by a body of cavalry under IMODEN and JENKINS. The rebels are reported as advancing against Clarksburgh, and great alarm is felt there by the inhabitants.

A correspondent of the Louisville Journal states that the rebel guerrilla MORGAN was at Glasgow on Saturday last, and destroyed all the [illegible] recently forced the citizens to the [illegible] of over a hundred. The telegraph is again in operation to Nashville.

The friends of CHARLES INGERSOLL, of Philadelphia, lately released from custody, intended to serenade him on Monday night, but the gentleman was not in town. The band was then directed to play "Dixie" and the "Marseillaise" beneath the windows of Judge CADWALLADER, PETER MCCALL and Judge WHARTON, but played National airs instead. Their loyal mind and stringed instruments refused to discourse rebel melodies.

The news from Fortress Monroe is not important. All of PORTER'S mortar fleet and the gunboats have left the James River, and are now at anchor in Hampton Roads. Part of the flotilla, it is said, is to proceed immediately to the Potomac. The Baltic is being loaded with troops taken from Norfolk, though it is scarcely probable that the intention of our forces is to wholly evacuate Norfolk.

Major-Gen. ORMSBY M. MITCHEL has been assigned to the command of the Department of the South, and will immediately repair to Hilton Head.

By direction of the President, Gen. MCCLELLAN is to take command of the fortifications of Washington, and of all the troops for the defence of the Capital.

Four city regiments left Philadelphia on Monday for Washington. The "Quaker City" is sending out men who are not to be daunted by Quaker guns.

The reports made to the Adjutant-General's Office show that New-Jersey's quota of 300,000 men is made up, obviating the necessity of drafting for the first call.

All the clerks and employes in the Civic Departments, and the employes in the public buildings at Washington, are to be organized into companies, and armed and equipped for the defence of the Capital.

The draft in Massachusetts has been postponed until the 17th of September, to take effect at 9 o'clock before noon of that day, unless the quota of that State is forthcoming, by volunteering, before that time.

Gov. CURTIN, of Pennsylvania, to meet a requisition of the President, has issued orders for the formation of three cavalry regiments within twenty days—advance pay and bounty to be paid.

The new Ironsides left Fortress Monroe on Sunday at noon for Philadelphia. Her trip is said to have proved a successful one in every respect.

GENERAL NEWS.

The steamship Bremen, from Southampton on the 20th August, arrived at this port yesterday. Her news has been anticipated by the intelligence brought by the North American.

At a special meeting of the Aldermen yesterday, the ordinance appropriating $50 bounty to volunteers for the war, was concurred in as amended by the Councilmen. The appropriation of $10,000 to such militia regiments as shall enlist for the nine months' service, was also concurred in. We have received the official proceedings of the Board of Councilmen—too late for insertion in this issue.

The Board of Councilmen met again at 1 P. M., yesterday, pursuant to Monday's adjournment, and passed the ordinance granting $50 to each City recruit, Councilman ORTON succeeding in procuring the adoption of his amendment, making the whole sum appropriated $500,000 instead of $250,000. The report of the Committee on National Affairs relative to Militia Regiments, was likewise adopted, with the amendment that, if such regiments volunteer for the entire term of the war, they shall also be entitled to the $50 bounty. The resolutions adopted by the Board of Aldermen upon the news of the fall of Gen. WILLIAMS at Baton Rouge, were concurred in, and resolutions of condolence with the family of Alderman WM. J. BRISLEY, were unanimously passed. After a vote of thanks to the City Regiments which have just returned from their three months special service at the seat of war, the Board adjourned until 5 P. M. on Thursday next.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday adopted the report of the Special Committee on the Tax Levy in favor of making the levy according to the estimates passed by the Legislature. Resolutions in favor of appropriating $250,000 for the support of families of volunteers were offered by Supervisor PURDY, and after some discussion were referred to a special Committee, consisting of Messrs. Purdy, Stewart, Tweed and Weissmann.

The brig Josephine, a prize, arrived at Philadelphia on Monday. This vessel was captured on the 26th of July, off Ship Island Shoal, while attempting to run the blockade, by the United States steamer Hatteras. She is in charge of Acting Master S. C. CRUISE. The Captain of the Josephine, CUMMINGS, Mate, and one of the crew, are on board as prisoners. The prize has a cargo consisting of 322 bales of cotton, 1,200 hogsheads staves, and a lot of fire brick.

A dispatch from Gen. BIRNEY himself, dated Centreville, Aug. 31, informs his friends that he has passed safely through all the recent battles.

Gov. PHELPS and Secretary of State W. F. SWITZLER, arrived at Helena, Ark., on Friday, 22d Aug., on the steamer Champion. Col. SWITZLER is Military Secretary of State, with the rank, pay and emoluments of Major of Cavalry.

The Seventeenth Regiment Connecticut Volunteers, Col. WM. H. NOBLE, leaves Bridgeport this morning, and will arrive by New-Haven Railroad at Forty-second-street, about 3 o'clock P. M. The regiment will proceed at once to foot of Twenty-third-street, East River, where they will embark on board the New-Jersey Central Co.'s steamer Kill Von Kull, for Washington, via Harrisburgh.

The Nineteenth Connecticut Volunteers, Col. WESSLER, the Twentieth Regiment, at New-Haven, and the Twenty-first Regiment, Col. DUTTON, will all leave for the seat of war during the present week.

The Eleventh Regiment N. Y. S. M., commanded by Col. MAIDHOFF, is en route for New-York, to arrive to-day.

The ship G. B. Lamar, from Glasgow for New-York, was wrecked on the Nova Scotian coast on the 30th ultimo. No lives were lost.

An application was made at Chambers of the Supreme Court, yesterday, before Justice LEONARD, for another order supplementary against Gen. JOHN C. FREMONT, upon the consideration of which the question of the exemption of military persons from arrest on civil process was discussed. The Court granted the application, but did not pass upon the merits of the question raised.

The Stock Market improved ¼@1 ℔ cent. yesterday on the sales at both sessions of the Board of Brokers, but fell back ¼@⅜ ℔ cent. late in the day on the dispatches from the West. Exchange, 128⅜; Gold, 117@117¼ ℔ cent.

Cotton was unusually active yesterday, and prices of Middlings advanced 3c@4c per lb. A fair business was reported in Flour at uniform rates. The decline in the price of Gold unfavorably affected the market for Grain; Wheat and Corn were quoted somewhat cheaper, with free sales. Provisions and Groceries were in moderate demand, as were also Hops, Hides, Leather and Whisky. Hay, Tallow and Kentucky Tobacco were in fair request. Liberal freight engagements were reported.

The Live Stock Markets continue to be fully supplied with animals; but with cooler weather, that favors both retailers and packers, all kinds of stock have sold well, and but few remain on hand. Beeves number 4,700 for the week, and the average for five weeks is 4,600. This large supply finds ready purchasers, and prices are fully sustained. There is an increase of light trash—thin steers, small heifers and dry cows, two of which will scarcely weigh down a good heavy bullock. Sellers report a little decline in the price of this class, and a corresponding advance in good cattle, a fair proportion of which are in market this week. Some of the best droves have averaged 8¼c. ℔ lb., estimated dressed weight, while the pick of the yards fall very little below 9c. Sales were not quite as brisk as last week, but all were disposed of before night of the second day of the regular market....Milch cows are still in light request, though a few more find a market to supply the places of those sold for beef. The improved demand for fat cattle has drawn upon the milk stables for well-conditioned and partially dry cows....Veals are in good demand, but scarcely as high as one week ago, the best being quoted at 8½c. ℔ lb., live weight....Sheep and lambs sold poorly the latter part of last week. Receipts were heavy, and the dead meat markets were so overstocked that very few butchers could be induced to purchase live sheep. There is an improvement now, and the quotations last week will hold good this week, viz., 4c.@4½c. ℔ lb., live weight, for good sheep, and 4½c.@6½c. for lambs. There is some stock still on hand....Live hogs are doing rather better, even with large receipts, (14,210) for the past week. Prime, heavy hogs are selling the best, and command 3½c.@3¾c. ℔ lb., live weight.

A Barbarian Invasion of the North.

The news of a strong rebel force threatening Louisville, is accompanied by news of a force equally strong threatening Cincinnati. The surrender of Clarksville is followed by an attack upon Fort Donelson. A portion of Gen. BRAGG'S army has been thrown into Western Virginia; and a body of cavalry, possibly detached from some powerful rebel expedition, is reported as having seized Buckhannon—a Virginia town, not far from the Pennsylvania line. In front of Washington the main body of the insurgent army pauses for a moment; but declares its purpose to be the passage of the Potomac and the occupation of Maryland. Washington is to be the first fruit of this daring movement.

Indications like these it is impossible to mistake. A change has been admitted into the plans of the rebels. Heretofore their attitude has been demonstratively defensive. They talked of a soil invaded, and the necessity of repelling the invaders. They only asked to be let alone. A portion of the population, inflamed by the Charleston Mercury, clamored for an offensive policy; demanded the invasion of the North, and found a representative man among the military in the person of Gen. BEAUREGARD. But the reckless inspirations of this noisy minority in no degree affected the determination of President DAVIS, or influenced the counsels of his military advisers. The defensive programme was faithfully adhered to. Gen. BEAUREGARD was supposed to retire from the chief command of the army, and finally from his military career altogether. It was no part of the plan of the rebel leaders to carry the war beyond the Border States. They had early selected that battle-ground, and they chose to retain it.

Their abandonment of this passive policy marks a new era in the war. The contest is now, it seems, to be carried on upon Northern soil. One reason of this change of measures may consist in the enormous waste of slave property incident to the presence of Union armies in the Slave States, and to the desolation which threatens to reign throughout the South if the conflict be permitted to rage without interruption from the Mississippi to the sea. But a stronger argument for a bolder course is found, no doubt, in the certainty that the waning strength of their military arm will presently leave them no power with which to attack or defend; and that if ever an impression is made upon the great European Governments, to whom the South looks anxiously for recognition, it must be made by following up vigorously the successful repulse of the Union forces from before Richmond. To have driven the invader back to his own frontier, and then to pass that boundary, carrying war into the enemy's country, would be an exhibition of military strength well deserving the applause and recognition of the entire world. That recognition once obtained, the war might be permitted to assume its former passive character; and against a North demoralized and discouraged by the acknowledgment accorded by the European Powers, it would be easy to hold their own, and in the end to procure a satisfactory peace. And if any force were needed to clinch these considerations, the obvious fact that something must be done before the 600,000 raw levies called forth by the President shall be converted into soldiers, must have had great weight in prompting a desperate resolve. On an immediate invasion of the North, at all points, the whole issue of the war was to be staked.

The apparent success of the first steps taken in the new direction is calculated to encourage the rebels. They have penetrated through Eastern Virginia to the very suburbs of the National Capital, and have won a fresh victory on an old battle-ground. They have overrun Kentucky, cut off Gen. BUELL from the Ohio River; the railroads and telegraphs are in their hands; they hold the capital of the State; and in a few days they will probably be swarming in irresistible force around Louisville. Nor will the Ohio check them. Cincinnati lies there a temping prize to half-starved, ill-clad rebels. To gain it would be to storm Paradise, and plunder its wealth at will. It will not be difficult to gather boats enough to float a few thousand men across the river; and unless the impromtu soldiers of the imperiled city fight with the resolution and skill of veterans, a landing and seizure of the place will be the work of a few hours.

It is not worth while to disguise the danger from these causes, but it is proper to prevent any undue exaggeration. While the first burst of the rebel onslaught upon the Free States may be momentarily mischievous, the attempt must be fatal to the rebel army. It is impossible to invade the North, leaving their own territory defenceless, the non-combatants, women and children, at home at the mercy of the slaves, and National armies closing in upon their rear and destroying the possibility of retreat or extrication. The passage of the Potomac and the Ohio by the rebel troops would be practically the end of the war. The track of the rebel advance could not be retrodden. The whole population around them would be in arms to arrest their progress, while the half million of soldiers now in the Union ranks in the South would follow in eager pursuit. From such a situation there could be no escape. The fate of NAPOLEON'S grand army would furnish the only parallel for the temerity of the rebels, should they rashly persevere in their attempt to invade the North.

A CALL FOR CAVALRY.—Gov. CURTIN, of Pennsylvania, to meet a requisition from the President, has issued orders for the formation of three cavalry regiments within twenty days. A similar demand should be made from the other States, as we are beginning to find out our extraordinary deficiency in this important branch of the service. The course of the military authorities with regard to cavalry has been erratic in the extreme. At first it was esteemed we should need none at all, and the high authority of Gen. SCOTT has been cited in support of this view. Afterwards, under the CAMERON regime, the tendency was quite the other way, and a violent cavalry-mania took possession of the Government. Presently, however, this subsided, and many regiments of horse were disbanded! Under the late call for six hundred regiments, no provision, strange to say, was made for this branch of the service, though one regiment to five of infantry is the proportion assigned by military authorities. We take it that the War Department has at length found out the mistake, and if STUART and his men have been influential in opening their eyes, let us be thankful for it.

Our Debt and Resources—Development of the National Wealth.

In our previous articles on this subject we gave the ascertained debt as it stood on the 1st July, 1862; and our estimate for the 1st July, 1863, based upon the expenditure for the past sixteen months. The account stands thus:

Debt on July 1, 1862, 504½ millions; per capita	$21 93
Annual interest; per capita	0 94
Debt on July 1, 1863, 626 millions; per capita	27 26
Annual interest; per capita	1 14

The population is taken at 23 millions, in which all the loyal States, except Western Virginia, are embraced.

The distribution of the debt and its interest in equal shares among the total population is adopted, because it better expresses the proportion of the burden to the resources of the country than any other statement. Wealth is, indeed, very unequally distributed, but the aggregate expenditure of a nation bears a determinable ratio to the aggregate of its people. Labor is unquestionably the primary source of all wealth; and its accumulated products, usually called capital, combined with labor, are the joint producers of all values. The efficient agents in the production of wealth must necessarily measure its amount or value. Capital and labor bears each its own proportion to the product; and either may be its exponent. We will not be understood to say that a fixed percentage of product can be affirmed of any given amount of capital, or any number of hands employed. No arithmetical formula will cover all the conditions of the problem; yet this is not an admission that results, where the elements are known, are not the subjects of calculation. The clear logical inference that the wealth or resources of a nation are in a direct ratio to its capital and labor employed, is verified by the experience of all well-organized and well-governed countries; and the authorities in statistics agree that in prosperous conditions wealth increases faster than numbers. The essence of civilization is progress, not uniform, but accelerated progress, in the dominion of mind over matter, a consequent extension of the term of human life, an increase of the means of subsistence, and an enhancement of the wealth, or well-being or welfare of human societies.

The history of England, France, Germany, and the United States, are sufficient examples and proofs. In these countries, the last century shows that prosperity is a capital of well-being, accumulating at compound interest. In England, for instance, the facts and figures of a hundred years' experience are clear and conclusive. Machinery has increased her productive power much more than twenty-fold since 1760. The exports of the produce and manufactures of the United Kingdom have increased in quantity more than twenty-two times, and the bread consumption of the products of England and Wales is tenfold, while the population has grown from six and a half millions to twenty and a quarter, or threefold. Such facts as these plainly indicate a prodigious increase of the aggregate wealth of the nation; and the distribution of its benefits to all classes, in their several degrees, is proved by the fact that the increase of the population in the first half of the last century was less than eighteen per cent.; in the last half it was above fifty-two per cent., and in the first half of the present century within a fraction of one hundred per cent. Moreover, it is demonstrated that the food consumed in England now is something more than double the supply per head of the people a hundred years ago. In all the other necessaries and enjoyments of life, the increase is so large, so manifold, that we grow impatient with the figures which might be used to express it. The bills of mortality and the researches of Life Assurance Companies, prove that the rapidly increasing growth of numbers is not owing to a greater proportion of births, but to a diminished proportion of deaths to the population.

The population of the United States in the year 1800 was five and one-third millions; in 1850, twenty-three and one-fifth millions—increase 437 per cent. in 50 years. While England and Wales were doubling, we more than quadrupled our numbers. That our wealth increased in due proportion is to be inferred from the laws governing the subject. These laws, in like conditions, insure like results.

To give some more definite idea of the regular growth of National wealth, we will take two instances, selected because they are well authenticated, and serve, besides, to illustrate each other and the principles which rule them.

The private property of Great Britain and Ireland in 1823, according to JOSEPH LOWE, stood at £2,200,000,000, sterling; in 1833, according to PEBBER, £3,537,000,000—from these estimates all stocks, mortgages and acceptances, which are only debts, are excluded. Here we have an increase of 60 per cent. in 10 years, against an increase of population of a fraction less than 15 per cent. The per capita valuation at the former date being £103 10s., and at the latter £145 10s., we find an increase of 40 per cent., per capita, in these 10 years.

For the United States we have census valuation for the years 1850 and 1860. By these reports it appears that, after deducting the value of the slaves, the property of the whole country, real and personal in 1850, was 6,174½ and in 1860 14,126½ millions of dollars—an increase in value of 128½ per cent., and an increase per capita of nearly 69 per cent. The amount to each person in 1850 being $266, and in 1860, $449. The population of Great Britain and Ireland in 1823, was 21,839,019; of the United States in 1850, 23,191,876. Thus the capital of Britain was nearly equal at the beginning of the respective decades. The British capital in property was 4,524 millions of dollars, or 72 per cent. greater than that of the United States; yet the increase of wealth per capita in the United States, at the end of the decade, was to the British as 69 is to 40 per cent.; that is, 72½ per cent. greater.

Here, then, we have results well ascertained, and as well proved. As independent facts, they answer the inquiry; but as data for the induction of a general law of increase, instead of furnishing a rule or rate, they start dozens of other inquiries—problems that appear to have no converging tendencies. Some of them are such as these: The periods compared are twenty-eight years distant, with all the improvements in art, science, and machinery of that length of time, in favor of the United States. The commercial revulsion of 1825 in England was much more severe than ours of 1857. We had the advantage of much greater enhancement of the value of our fresh lands, and our decade had the influx of California gold to quicken industry and enterprize; while England, from 1823 to 1833, suffered from a scarcity of the precious metals. If these differences of conditions, along with all others not named, may be supposed to balance each other, we may assume that the progress in wealth of Great Britain, in the last ten years, has been, like our own, at the rate of 128 per cent., in total valuation, and 69 per cent. per capita, which would give us this grand result, in a period having the industrial and commercial character of our last census decade. National wealth in England and the United States doubles itself once in eight years and four-tenths; and, if population increased at the like rate in both countries—at our rate—the wealth per capita would double in eleven years and three-tenths; but as it does not, and cannot, for generations to come, the English increase of wealth per capita must be as much greater as her population growth is slower than ours. The English capital of wealth, and artificial labor, in 1850, was immensely greater than ours. Her productive industry is so much more largely engaged in mining, manufactures and the mechanic arts than ours, that valuations of stock, or principal, or capital, in the respective countries have no such equality or parallelism as would serve for the basis of a calculation applicable to both. The capital employed in productive industry in every State or district has its own rate of accumulation; the wealth of Pennsylvania increased in the last census decade 96 per cent.; in Vermont, 33 per cent.; in New-York, 71 per cent.; in Rhode Island, 68 per cent.; in Iowa, 942 per cent.; in the whole United States, 128 per cent.; while in the decade 1840–50, the total increase in the Union was not above 64 per cent. in capital, and 21 per cent. per capita.

It must be sufficiently apparent from these statements that the resources of a nation, or its ability to meet expenditure for a period of twenty, forty, or fifty years in advance, can not be ascertained with mathematical precision. The uncertainties of fact, and the errors incident to calculation, beleaguer the question on all sides. We do not know the economical or political conditions of the future; war and peace, civil and international, are among the possibilities that may disturb the elements of the problem; and, when we find such a statistician as Professor TUCKER, of the University of Virginia, dividing the increase per cent. of the valuation of the National property by the increase per cent. of the population, to ascertain the increased resources of the country, we are prompted to look very narrowly into the renderings of even the highest authorities. A percentage is merely the proportion or the ratio of the given division and dividend; it measures nothing else, and has no ratio whatever to the percentage of any other arithmetical problem, having for its subject a different kind of thing, or a different principal amount of the same thing.

But the uncertainties of fact, and our liability to mistake and mismanagement in the employment of the best proved data, are sources of more frequent and more fatal error. The chief of these troubles are found in the miracles and mysteries of money, currency, standard of value, and price current. For the present, we rest on the conclusion that a nation, in the condition of our own in 1850, may double its wealth in less than ten years; that England has done it within the last half century—twenty-five years ago—in a period of 14½ years; and most probably doubled it again since 1850.

Is There to be No Draft!

Gov. ANDREW announces in a proclamation that he is acting so as to avoid any draft, if possible, and with this view he has put it off until the 17th of September. The document announces that this is done "with the consent of the Secretary of War, but upon the responsibility of the Governor of Massachusetts"—whatever that odd jumble of all authority may mean. From this and other late indications, it would seem that the Secretary of War has surrendered the whole question of drafting into the hands of the Governors of the several States. A sort of small State-Rights battle has been waged, and Mr. STANTON retires worsted from the conflict. Each Governor appoints any day he sees fit for the commencement of drafting; the consequence is that there is an utter want of uniformity in a matter where, of all other things, uniformity is most needed. Besides, if each State Governor is to proceed on his own "responsibility," what assurance is there that we shall have a draft at all. At present, we confess, the prospect is hazy. The whole affair has been a muddle from the beginning, and a disgrace to the War Department. We pray Heaven it may not prove anything worse.

THE NEW COMMANDER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH.—There are several other regions which one would suppose to be more difficult to govern than the Department of the South. It is not expected of the General who undertakes its charge that he shall seek any new conquests, or enter on any new campaign in that quarter: he will do all that is required of him if he hold the territory which the navy won for us ten months ago. And yet, if we judge by the frequency with which the com-

[illegible] should capitulate & to MAKE [illegible] of all hand military stores [illegible] goes down as the third who has come to rule the Sea Island region, succeeding Gen. HUNTER, who replaced Gen. SHERMAN. Unless there be something in the genius of the place that turns the best head, the Government has surely at last found a man fit for the post and the work. Gen. MITCHEL is an educated soldier; but he superadds to this a practical and administrative talent, that the mere soldier rarely shows. If his energetic and versatile mind fails to control the refractory elements of that region, we may well despair of finding any man fit for the task.

The appointment of Gen. MITCHEL to this command, restores to active duty a soldier who should never for a day have been allowed to be out of harness; while, at the same time, it admits of the transfer of Gen. HUNTER to some new and more congenial field of duty.

No one will pretend to see any political significance in the change, as both soldiers, in so far as they are politicians, think very much alike. We presume the only object of the measure was to put at the head of the Department of the South a man peculiarly fitted for the post, while the services of the relieved General can be made not less but more available elsewhere.

THE WAR IN THE WEST.

Martial Law Proclaimed in Cincinnati.

Vigorous Proclamations of Gen. Lew. Wallace and Mayor Hatch.

EVACUATION OF CYNTHIANA AND PARIS.

OPERATIONS OF HUMPHREY MARSHALL.

Further Particulars of the Fight at Bolivar.

CINCINNATI, Tuesday, Sept. 2.

Business is entirely suspended here.

The railroad cars have stopped running.

There is a great deal of excitement but no panic.

The people are quietly but actively organizing defence.

No male citizen is allowed to leave the city.

Our troops are preparing to evacuate Cynthiana.

HUMPHREY MARSHALL is reported to be marching on that place from Piketon.

ORDER FROM GEN. WALLACE.

The undersigned, by order of Maj.-Gen. WADSWORTH, assumes command of Cincinnati, Covington and Newport.

It is but fair to inform our citizens that an active, daring and powerful enemy threatens them with every consequence of war—yet the cities must be defended and the inhabitants assist in the preparations.

First—All business must be suspended at 9 o'clock to-day. Every business house must be closed.

Second—Under the direction of the Mayor the citizens must, within the hour after the suspension of business, assemble in convenient public places ready for orders, and as soon as possible they will then be assigned to their work. This labor ought to be one of love, and the undersigned trusts and believes that it will be so. Anyhow it must be done—the willing shall be promptly credited—the unwilling promptly visited.

The principle adopted is, "Citizens for the labor, soldiers for the battle."

Martial law is hereby proclaimed in the three cities until they can be relieved by the military, the injunctions of this proclamation will be executed by the police.

Third—Ferryboats will cease plying the rivers after 4 o'clock in the morning until further orders.

LEWIS WALLACE,
Major-General Commanding.

PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR.

In accordance with the proclamation of Maj.-Gen. WALLACE, I give this public notice that the police force will, until further orders, act as a Provost Guard, and I order and enjoin upon all good citizens to respect and obey them.

Any disregard of the orders from the General Commanding, through the police, will be enforced strictly.

GEORGE HATCH, Mayor.

ANOTHER ORDER FROM GEN. WALLACE.

HEADQUARTERS, UNITED STATES FORCES,
CINCINNATI, Aug. 2, 1862.

GENERAL ORDER No. 1.—All places in the cities of Cincinnati, Covington and Newport where liquors of any kind are sold, must be closed at 4 o'clock this morning, and all soldiers are directed, upon any failure or refusal to obey this order, to seize the stock on hand that it may be confiscated for sanitary purposes.

By order of Major-Gen. LEWIS WALLACE.
H. ELSTON, Jr., Aid-de-Camp and Chief of Staff.

EVACUATION OF PARIS.

CINCINNATI, Tuesday, Sept. 2.

Paris, Kentucky, was evacuated last night, our troops falling back on Cynthiana.

Gen. LEWIS WALLACE has been engaged all night in making preparations for the protection of the City.

PARTICULARS OF THE FIGHT AT BOLIVAR

CAIRO, Monday, Sept 1.

The fight at Bolivar, Tenn., on Saturday, lasted all the afternoon, resulting in the repulse of the enemy. They encamped within a few miles of the town, and on Sunday morning broke up into small squads, forded the Hatchee River, and attacked Meadow Station, where they met a determined resistance, and were finally repulsed with a loss of fifty killed and wounded. Our loss is said to be only four. Telegraph and railroad communication between Bolivar and Jackson is interrupted but will soon be restored.

A report reached here to-day that Gen. BUELL had had a fight with the rebels at Chattanooga, Wednesday and Thursday. The first day no advantage was gained on either side. On the second day the enemy were repulsed. BUELL is reported to have captured 7,000 prisoners. This news is said to have been telegraphed to Tuscumbia, and was brought from there to Jackson, Tenn., by Gen. ROSS' special messenger. It may be true.

Later intelligence says the rebels have destroyed all the railroad bridges between Bolivar and Jackson.

THE OLD ST. LOUIS MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE.

ST. LOUIS, Monday, Sept 1.

The members of the Old St. Louis Merchants' Exchange were notified to appear before the Provost-Marshal-General to-day to answer to the charge of disloyal demonstrations at the meeting held last Friday. If found guilty, the Exchange will be dissolved, and the property confiscated.

THE FIGHT AT DANVILLE, KY.

TOTAL DEFEAT OF THE REBELS BY THE HOME GUARD.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

DANVILLE, Tuesday, Aug. 26, 1862.

The Home Guard of this place were informed by couriers last night that between two and three hundred recruits for the guerrilla band now infesting the mountain districts had passed through Perryville, [illegible] a struggle of the rebels[illegible], who told them that the whole force was [illegible] a mile from there in the yard of Asa Hickox, Esq., a staunch Union man. Capt. Carlls then dismounted his men and marched them through the woods to the house unseen by the rebels. He then divided them, giving United States Marshall Sharpe command of the rear guard, he retaining command of the other. [illegible] that they were anticipating the attack. The two guards fired simultaneously, which [illegible] and the rebels retreated into the house and in the rear of it, saying they were surrounded by four hundred cavalry, which they thought had been pursuing them for two days. Capt. Carlls then ordered his men to "take trees," and a rambling fire was carried on as long as the rebels returned it, which they did in poor style.

The vastly inferior force of Capt. Carlls and the almost impenetrable darkness would not permit of his advancing to the house—he not being aware of the fright and confusion of the enemy. Had he known the panic which prevailed among them he might easily have captured the whole party; but, acting with that caution in the face of a force over five times as great as his own which should characterize military leaders, he withdrew his little band without the loss of a drop of blood. One of his men, however—Mr. Jesse Dubbah—was slightly wounded by his pickets. He had been separated from the main body, and they mistook him for a rebel. In the meantime a body of Home Guards from Harrodsburgh, about fifteen men, commanded by Capt. Jack Mann, had gone to this point, for the purpose of attacking the rebels, they not knowing of Capt. Carlls' movements, nor he of theirs. They had a skirmish with the rebels before Capt. Carlls' company arrived on the scene of action, and then retired to this

Capt. Carlls afterward made his attack, not having heard of Capt. Mann. One of Capt. Mann's party—Mr. James Piatt, of Harrodsburgh—was shot and killed through mistake by one of Capt. Carlls's pickets. The Harrodsburgh squad arrived here about dawn, and, being unable to give any information of Capt. Carlls or his men, and none of them having arrived, six or eight men, including your correspondent, immediately started to ascertain their fate. When we arrived at Mr. Shelby's we found about thirty horses belonging to the rebels in the yard, three rebels dead, twelve wounded, and thirteen who were able-bodied and armed, but who surrendered without resistance. Capt. Carlls's company had not been at the house, but we learned that a member of it that they had gone to Danville before day. The main body of the rebels had left about dawn for Stanford. We secured the prisoners and horses and sent the former with an escort of honor (!) to Gen. Smith's headquarters at Kentucky River. The horses will be left to Gen. Boyle's disposal. The worthy gentlemen comprising the aforesaid rebellious band were rude, uncouth representatives of Henry, Nelson, Oldham and one or two other counties. One, Lieut. Alston, of Morgan's cavalric horse-stealers, commanded the party, who, the prisoners said, proved himself the reverse of Miles Standish—a "man of words, not of actions," save and except his remarkable celerity in skedaddling.

This gallant band of searchers-after-their-rights, who were thrown into irreparable confusion by a force one-fifth their own, and who lost three in killed, 13 in wounded, 17 in prisoners, (including stragglers taken up,) and 30 horses, were armed with revolvers, shot-guns, and Kentucky rifles.

The foregoing statement I know to be true and reliable. I feel that a grateful people will award to Capt. Carlls and his brave comrades that praise which their gallantry so eminently deserves. W.

Danville, Ky., Aug. 26—7 P. M.

Editors Journal: I sent you a few hasty lines this morning. Since then I have learned more about the affair. It was reported last evening that some three hundred rebels had passed through Perryville, and were on their way to destroy the Government stores beyond Crab Orchard. Some twenty-five or thirty men, under Capt. Carlls, went out to try their hands with them. They were reinforced by some twenty men under Capt. Mann, from Mercer County.

When the rebels were found, they had camped in front of Mr. John Shelby's house, seven miles south of this place. Our men made an attack on them; the rebels retreated into the house and cellar, and laid down for fear of balls from the windows. Mr. Shelby and family were detained in the house (they being Union) as safeguards. Our men killed and wounded fifteen, and brought away seventeen prisoners and a number of horses. To-day other prisoners were taken and brought in, making the total thirty-nine prisoners. The men were recruited in Shelby, Spencer, Owen and Henry mostly, and were under the command of Alston, Morgan's Adjutant. The rebels were taken by surprise, and thought they were surrounded by 500 men, and expected to surrender at daylight: so what must have been their surprise this morning to see no troops around them! They left in a hurry with a loss of 52 killed, wounded and prisoners. No one of our men was killed or wounded by them.

THE MILITARY EXCITEMENT.

MATTERS IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Lancaster, Tuesday, Sept. 2.

The militia enrolled in this county is 20,488, while 4,107 volunteers are in the service. In Lancaster City there are 3,700 men enrolled, and 1,523 in the service. Berks, the great Democratic County, having 16,000 voters, has enrolled only 6,363. Reading claims no more able-bodied men than Lancaster now has in the field. The matter demands an investigation.

ITEMS FROM PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, Tuesday, Sept. 2.

Gov. Curtin, to meet a requisition from the President, has issued orders for the formation of three cavalry regiments within twenty days—advance pay and bounty to be paid.

Three friends of Charles Ingersoll engaged Birgfield's Band for a serenade last night, but kept the band in the dark as to the object. Ingersoll was out of town. After playing a few tunes they were taken to the residence of Judge Cadwallader, Peter McCall and Judge N. Marton. The managers of the affair wanted "Dixie" and "Marseillaise" played, but the band refused and played National airs instead. The originators of the serenade are unknown.

Three immense rifled cannon, 7⅗, 8 and 8¾-inch bore, have already been found in the hold of the prize steamer Bermuda. Other cases, not yet opened, are supposed to contain small cannon or rifles.

Four city regiments left yesterday for Washington

NEW-YORK MILITARY MATTERS.

Albany, Tuesday, Sept. 2.

The Military Committee of the Albany Senatorial District to-day recommended Capt. John Hastings, brother of the Editor of the Albany Knickerbocker, for the Lieutenant-Colonelcy of the One Hundred and Thirteenth New-York Regiment. Capt. Hastings has been in every general engagement in Virginia since the commencement of the rebellion.

THE QUOTA OF NEW-JERSEY.

Trenton, Tuesday, Sept. 2.

The reports made to the Adjutant-General's office show that New-Jersey's quota of 300,000 men is made up without draft. For the last few days recruits have been pouring into the several places of rendezvous at an astonishing rate.

MONROE COUNTY IN ARMS.

INTENSE EXCITEMENT OF THE PEOPLE—PUBLIC MEETINGS—THE QUOTA OF THE COUNTY NEARLY COMPLETE—A DRAFT DEMANDED.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

Rochester, Wednesday, Aug. 27, 1862.

We have heard and read the declaration often repeated, that did we at the North show half the earnestness of the South, in the present struggle, a speedy and final victory over the rebellion would be at once assured.

Since the President's first proclamation for 300,000 volunteers, Monroe County has been the scene of such an excitement as it has never before witnessed. The people en masse, throughout the city and country, have grown more and more intense and earnest in their enthusiasm. Public meetings have been held over and over again in every School District and every Ward in the entire county. Every one accustomed at all to public speaking, has had his powers tried to the utmost, to answer the calls made upon him. Our first regiment, the One Hundred and Eighth, Col. Palmer, was recruited and sent to the seat of war, the 19th inst. Preparations had already been commenced, under the authority of the Governor, to raise another volunteer regiment for three years, with the assurance that we should be credited with it, upon our quota under both calls of the Government.

The Thirteenth Regiment, now in the field, the Eighth New-York Cavalry, chiefly a Monroe County Regiment, and several others, also had their recruiting-offices open. So that, for the last six weeks, we have had from twenty-five to fifty recruiting-offices open in the entire county. The One Hundred and Eighth Regiment was recruited chiefly from the country towns. The effort to fill up the new one has been mainly directed to the City.

We have, therefore, here been in a state of excite-

[illegible] were within the range of possibility, our quota would be furnished voluntarily, and not by the compulsion of a draft. We have gone to work with this conviction, and we have kept to work with its stimulus upon us, and with the higher stimulus of what I believe is pure and unselfish patriotism. Every energy has been put forth to make it practical and effective in the number of recruits to be raised this week.

Our Supervisors, on the 19th inst., appropriated $100 to each volunteer, under the order of the Secretary of War of Aug. 14, inst., who should be actually mustered into any old or new regiment, prior to the 1st of September next. The towns and wards have generally appropriated from $25 to $50 more to each one, so that the entire bounties offered by the Government and by localities, have been fully equal to the earnings of a prosperous laborer for an entire year. We were influenced by a local pride, too, that led us to be emulous of a position to avoid the draft, and to outdo our neighboring counties in Western New-York, many of which have done nobly.

Under the influence of all these motives, and with that latent sympathy, which, in vast masses or communities of men, when once evolved, becomes the greatest of powers, our City has been the theatre of one of the sublimest acts, ever recorded in the history of Nations.

The people have forsaken their business, so far as was possible, have closed their doors, and have gone into the business of recruiting with one will and one heart. Every night they turn out by thousands, at the various ward meetings. One cannot go into any part of the city without hearing the voices of the speakers, the cheers of the multitudes, interspersed with instrumental and vocal music. Tents are erected at the corners of all the principal streets, for recruiting offices. The Common Council have caused the tocsin to be sounded at 3½ P. M., on each day, and the public then suspend every other employment. Some practical results ought to be expected from this gigantic movement, and we have them. Our quota under both calls of the Government is 3,112. We sent out the One Hundred and Eighth, numbering 1,000, to which is attached a company of sharpshooters of 103, and a rifle battery of 150. We have furnished over 600 to the old regiments, since July 1 last, and up to this evening there have been 700 mustered into the new regiment. We lack only 500 to complete our quota, and those we shall have by Saturday evening.

We hope and believe there will be no drafting in Monroe County. But if all accounts from other parts of the State are true, the draft must be made. There are intimations thrown out, apparently from official sources, that the draft will be omitted or postponed. I hope not. The people in this section of the State are almost unanimous in the wish that, as the Government has once announced its intention on this subject, and has fixed the 1st of September as the day, it will not show vacillation, and timidity in backing out. It is alleged as an excuse, that the Government cannot arm or equip so many troops. Did not the Secretary of War know the resources of his department when the order was issued? Did not he know how soon 600,000 fresh troops could be made effective, instead of counting on paper? Or are we to be told that the Administration have come to the conclusion that we can conquer the rebels with 300,000 less than they first estimated? For one, I trust that the lives and treasure of the patient people, who have lavished them without stint upon their servants and agents who constitute the Administration, will not be frittered away, either by the imbecility or vacillation, or the cowardice which have not been, or cannot be, eradicated by the experiences of the past sixteen months. Let the draft come! we are ready. MONROE.

The Union Pacific Railroad.

Chicago, Tuesday, Sept. 2.

The Board of Commissioners of the Union Pacific Railroad, met at Bryan Hall at noon to-day Gen. Curtis was chosen temporary Chairman by acclamation. He proceeded to address the meeting upon the serious and important work upon which they had been called together, briefly reviewing its great necessity, and invaluable influence which it will exercise on the interests of the country. Robert Turner, of Pennsylvania, and John R. Robinson, of California, were chosen temporary Secretaries. The roll was called, and 76 answered to their names. Mr. Cass, of Pennsylvania, moved to proceed to a permanent organization. Some discussion ensued on the motion that when the meeting adjourned it do so till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning—Lost, 31 to 39. Without taking action on the motion for permanent organization the Convention adjourned till 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Amusements.

Winter Garden.—The drama of "Rosa Gregorio" has been revived at the Winter Garden, and will be played through the current week. The piece is a very effective one, and has been received, whenever played, with sufficient commendation to warrant its permanent addition to Miss Bateman's repertory. In the part of the heroine Miss Bateman has achieved a decided success. She is excellently sustained in the other leading parts by Mr. J. W. Wallack, Jr., and Mr. Edwin Adams.

Wallack's.—This is the last week of Mr. and Mrs. Florence's term of management at Wallack's Theatre. They are being gratified with large audiences, now the evenings are growing cool again, and are pretty sure to wind up their Summer season prosperously. To-morrow evening Gen. Corcoran has promised to honor the performances with his presence, when a great crowd may be expected.

The Brooklyn Athenæum.—A series of dramatic entertainments, commencing this evening, is about to be given at the Brooklyn Athenæum. The plays selected for the opening night are "The Maiden's Vow," "The Rough Diamond," and "A Pleasant Neighbor." Mrs. Sadley Brown, a most lively and piquant actress, and Mr. A. H. Davenport, appear in two pieces.

Loss of the Ship G. B. Lamar.

The Secretary of the Board of Underwriters, of this City, has received the following telegraphic dispatch:

Libscom Island, County of Guysboro, N. S., Sept. 2, 1862.

SITUATIONS WANTED.

DEAFNESS,
Diseases of the Eye, Ear, and Air-Passages.

Dr. LIGHTHILL can be consulted daily until 3 P.M., at his residence, No. 34 St. Mark's-place.

ADDITIONAL TESTIMONIALS
A DEAF MUTE RESTORED TO HEARING.

My son, now 12 years of age, has been deaf and dumb, and a pupil of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum in this City for the past ten years. Dr. Lighthill has succeeded in restoring his hearing to such a degree, that he is now able to learn to speak with facility.

The success which the Doctor has had in this case has scarcely a parallel, and deserves to be extensively known by the public.

GABRIEL LOWENSTEIN, No. 175 Spring-st.
New-York, Aug. 15, 1862.

Metropolitan Hotel,
New-York, Aug. 20, 1862.

Dr. Lighthill has succeeded in restoring my hearing which was considerably impaired, and has also removed the noises in my head, which had incessantly annoyed me.

As I am a resident of New-Orleans, and a stranger in the City, intending to stay but a short time longer, I make reference to Messrs. Sturges, Bennet & Co., No. 125 Front-st., and to Mr. J. E. Fisher, No. 29 Park-row, to whom I am well known and who are familiar with the circumstances of my case. G. DE CASTRO.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 19, 1862.

Henry Laws, now stopping with me, has been afflicted with deafness for some time. He applied to Dr. Lighthill who, after a few weeks' treatment, completely restored him, so that now he hears well and is enabled to attend to business, which before he could not, without great inconvenience. JOHN MURDOCK,
No. 197 Fulton-st., Brooklyn.

New-York, July 23, 1862.

I hereby certify that I have suffered during many years from trouble in hearing—one ear at last became entirely deaf, and the other so bad as to render conversation very difficult. I applied to Dr. Lighthill, of No. 34 St. Mark's-place, who, in a short time, and without pain, restored to me the use of my ears, so that I can now hear perfectly well. J. BISCO, No. 188 East 23d-st.

New-York, June 29, 1862.

Dr. Lighthill:

Dear Sir: I am pleased to be able to testify to the efficacy of your treatment in the case of my wife, whose hearing in one ear you succeeded in restoring, after treatment of various kinds had been applied in vain. I may futhermore state that her hearing remains good up to the present time, though it is several years since she has been under your care. E. CLAYBURGH, No. 141 Duane-st.

No. 740 Water-st., New-York, June 5, 1862.

Dr. Lighthill has succeeded in completely restoring my hearing, which was seriously impaired, although previous to applying to him I was treated by several physicians without the least benefit. Any further information I should be pleased to render, on application to me, at my residence, No. 173 Second-st., Brooklyn, E. D., or at my place of business, No. 749 Water-st.

CATARRH CURED.

From Rev. P. R. Russell, Lynn, Mass.

I have been much troubled with Catarrh of the worst type for some twenty years. It gradually grew worse, producing cough and hoarseness, destroying the sense of smell, and breaking down my general health to such a degree as to compel me to resign my pastorate and suspend public speaking.

I made diligent use of the usual remedies, such as snuffs of divers kinds, nitrate of silver, tar-water, olive tar and inhalations, but without any very salutary effects. Last Summer I heard of Dr. Lighthill's successful mode of treating Catarrh, visited him, and put myself under his treatment. I began immediately to improve, and this improvement has gone on to the present time. My Catarrh has gradually melted away, my cough has disappeared, my voice has become natural, and I am once more able to preach the blessed Gospel. Let me advise all who are troubled with catarrhal difficulties to apply to Dr. Lighthill. P. R. RUSSELL.

Lynn, Mass., Feb. 1, 1862.

No. 42 Fifth-st., New-York, June 25, 1862.

Dr. Lighthill:

Dear Sir I take pleasure in testifying to the remarkable skill and judgment you displayed in the case of my daughter, who had been partially deaf, accompanied by discharge from the ears, since early infancy, and is now, thanks to your treatment, able to hear as well as any one, while her ears are free from the discharge. Although it is nearly two years since she has been under your care, her hearing remains as good and her ears as sound as the day she left you. O. S. HOLLY.

New-York, June 10, 1862.

Dr. Lighthill:

Dear Sir: Permit me to thank you most sincerely for the invaluable services you have rendered me in restoring the hearing of my son, who had been deaf from infancy, and who had previously been under the care of the best medical talent without the slightest success.
Respectfully,
ANSELL HECHT,
No. 136 6th-av.

No. 3 Gates-av., Brooklyn, April 15, 1860.

Dr. E. B. Lighthill:

It gives me pleasure to inform you of the entire and effectual cure you have made in my little daughter's eyes, who, after having tried the skill of several eminent physicians, has been entirely relieved through your treatment without which, it is probable, she would never have regained her sight.
Most respectfully, yours, A. H. PURDY,
Late proprietor of National Theatre.

New-York, July 29, 1862.

I thank you most sincerely for the really wonderful cure you have performed in the case of one of my children, who was affected with catarrh of so severe a nature that its life was despaired of, notwithstanding some of our most eminent physicians had it under treatment at different times. The child is now growing vigorous and healthy, thanks to your skillful attendance.

GASPARIN'S NEW WORK.
JUST PUBLISHED BY
C. SCRIBNER, No. 124 Grand-st., New-York.
AMERICA BEFORE EUROPE.
PRINCIPLES AND INTERESTS.
By Count de Gasparin. Translated by Miss Mary L. Booth. 1 Vol., 12mo., $1 25.

From the New-York World.

It is in all respects an extraordinary book. It would earn eminence and fame by its own intrinsic excellences as a work of art—by its argumentative and analytical ability, its lucidness and freshness, and its multitude of other attractions in style and composition; but it has one attraction that overtops them all: its errand—this will make it fascinating in the eye of an American. * * * But the book is not merely an impassioned plea, designed for momentary effect upon jury and judge—scarcely that at all. It is an appeal to the understanding. It handles facts. It ventilates theories. It is a mass of argument and close logic.

National War Committee, of the Citizens of New-York, Rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, Aug. 30, 1862.

THE NATIONAL WAR COMMITTEE OF the citizens of New-York, appointed at the War Mass Meeting, in the Park, on the 27th inst., ask from citizens and corporations, the means necessary to carry out the purposes for which they were appointed, viz: "To promote a vigorous prosecution of the war, and a speedy termination of the rebellion." That meeting unanimously

Resolved, That, inasmuch as property in the loyal States is valueless should the rebellion succeed, we call on the moneyed and other corporations, to contribute largely to the recruiting funds, and to every effort for suppressing the rebellion.

To place regiments in the field there are, as is well known, many expenses to be incurred which cannot be paid by either the State or the General Government. The Committee have already received several pressing applications for money, and they, therefore, in this public manner, call on corporations and individuals to furnish the means to enable them to answer the demands.

It is impossible for the Committee to see each of their fellow-citizens, but they confidently trust that this appeal will meet a sincere and prompt response. For more than a year these calls for aid have been made, and they have been met in a spirit of generous patriotism. But so long as their is an enemy in arms against the Government, so long must we continue to labor and contribute; or all our past efforts will be worse than useless.

Special efforts are making for the Legion of GENERAL CORCORAN—some payments have been already made for this corps. The donors can, if they prefer, designate the particular approp

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS.

Before Justice Leonard.

Giles vs. A. A. Selcour and John C. Fremont.—The plaintiff in this case having obtained a judgment against the defendants and execution thereon having been returned unsatisfied, obtained an order for the examination of the defendants on supplementary proceedings. On the failure of the defendant, Gen. Fremont, to appear and submit to an examination plaintiff applied for an order of attachment to issue against the General for contempt of Court. Judge Barnard denied the application, but granted an order to show cause why such attachment should not issue. Plaintiff not being able to serve the order upon Gen. Fremont owing to his absence in New-England, he now applies, de novo, for an order for the examination of Gen. Fremont. The objection made to the granting of the order is founded on section 312 of Article VIII of the laws of 1862, which provides that "no person belonging to the military forces shall be arrested on any civil process, while going to, remaining at, or returning from any place at which he may be required to attend for military duty," and it is alleged on the part of the defendants that Gen. Fremont is now in this City on military duty. Plaintiff produces the affidavit of one Bradford Jones that Gen. Fremont is not now in actual military service for the United States, but has been deprived of his command by order of the Secretary of War. Judge LEONARD, without according in advance the liability or exemption of Gen. Fremont from arrest, granted the order for his examination on supplementary proceedings.

W. Gleason for plaintiff; Coles Morris, for defendant.

M., when the same will be publicly opened for the whole or any part of the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) of the Croton water stock of the City of New-York, authorized by Chapter 372 of the laws of 1849, and as amended by Chapter 181 of the laws of 1851, and by an ordinance of the Common Council, approved by the Mayor Oct. 4, 1861, for increasing the supply of Croton water, &c.

The said stock will bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable quarter-yearly, and the principal will be redeemed Nov. 1, 1883.

The proposals will state the amount of stock desired, and the price per one hundred dollars thereof, and the persons whose proposals are accepted will be required to deposit with the Chamberlain of the City, within ten days after the opening of the bids, the sum awarded to them respectively.

On presenting to the Comptroller the receipts of the Chamberlain for such deposits, the parties will be entitled to receive certificates for equal amounts of the par value of the stock, bearing interest from the date of payments.

Each proposition should be sealed and indorsed "Proposals for Croton Water Stock of the City of New-York," and the same inclosed in a second envelope, addressed to the Comptroller.

The right is reserved to reject any or all of the bids, if considered necessary, to protect or promote the interests of the City.

ROBERT T. HAWS, Comptroller.

BELLEVUE HOSPITAL MEDICAL COLLEGE.
SESSION FOR 1862-'3.

The preliminary term in this institution will commence on WEDNESDAY, Sept. 17, 1862, and continue to the beginning of the regular term, viz., 11 weeks.

In addition to daily instruction in the Bellevue and Blackwell's Island Hospitals during the preliminary term, three lectures will be given daily by members of the Faculty. The regular term will commence on WEDNESDAY, Oct. 15, 1862, and end early in March, 1863. During the whole of the session the students will have the opportunity of attending at least two clinical lectures daily; the didactic lectures are so arranged as not to interfere with attendance at the Hospital. Clinical and demonstrative teaching constituting the great feature of this College, the arrangements are such as to render the immense resources of the Hospitals available to the student to the fullest extent. All the lectures are given either in the Hospitals or in the College building, situated within the Bellevue Hospital grounds.

The Departments and Faculty of this College are constituted as follows:

PRESIDENT, ISAAC E. TAYLOR, M. D.
SECRETARY, AUSTIN FLINT, M. D.

Department of Surgery and Surgical Anatomy—Profs. James R. Wood, Frank H. Hamilton, Lewis A. Sayre, Alexander B. Mott and Stephen Smith. Department of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women and Children—Isaac E. Taylor, Geo. T. Elliot and B. Fordyce Barker. Department of Materia Medica and Therapeutics—Prof. Benj. W. McCready. Department of Descriptive and Comparative Anatomy—Prof. Timothy Childs. Department of Chemistry and Toxicology—Prof. R. Ogden Doremus. Department of the Principles and Practice of Medicine—Prof. Austin Flint. Department of Physiology and Microscopy—Prof. Austin Flint, Jr.

Circulars may be obtained of the Janitor, Mr. WARE, at Bellevue Hospital, 26th-st., E. R.; or by addressing the Secretary of the Faculty, AUSTIN FLINT, JR., M. D., No. 74 Union-place, corner of 16th-st. and 4th-av.

PHYSIOLOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE.—Containing nearly 300 pages, and 150 fine plates and engravings of the anatomy of the sexual organs in a state of health and disease; with a treatise on self-abuse, its deplorable consequences upon the mind and body; with the author's plan of treatment—the only rational and successful mode of cure, as shown by the report of cases treated, a truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition. Sent free of postage to any address on receipt of 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps. Address Dr. LA CROIX, No. 31 Maiden-lane, Albany, N. Y.

NERVOUS DEBILITY—BY C. D. HAMMOND, M. D., formerly Professor of Special Anatomy, &c., in the Syracuse Medical College, New-York. Revised Edition. Price $1, mailed. Those who have been disappointed in the use of so-called "Specific" remedies for the Cure of Seminal Weakness, Impotency, and kindred complaints, would do well to procure a copy of this Book, and read especially pages 113, 114, 115, and 264 to 268. To be had of E. WARNER, No. 1 Vesey-st., N. Y. Author's address, No. 31 East 27th-st., (late of No. 658 Broadway.)

DR. HUNTER'S RED DROP RESTORES the vigor of youth in four days. Restores manhood to the most shattered system. The French preventive $4 per dozen. No. 3 Division-st., New-York, the only place. You who have contracted that soul and body-destroying vice, Secret Habits, Dr. HUNTER'S Red Drop cures the worst cases. Price $1, with a book.

EDWARD H. DIXON, M. D., EDITOR OF the Scalpel, and Operating and Consulting Surgeon, No. 42 5th-av. Office consultations on the more obscure diseases of the pelvic viscera. Rupture, piles, varicocele, and fistula, radically cured without the knife or ligature. Office hours from 8 to 9, 1 to 3, and 7 to 9 evenings. Consultation fee $5.

DR. JOHNSON, NO. 14 DUANE-ST., MAY be consulted with confidence on private diseases. Thirty years in one specialty enables him to guarantee speedy and permanent cures. N. B.—Those who may have been misled by quack advertisements, nostrums, &c., can call on Dr. J. with the certainty of receiving honorable treatment.

FOUND AT LAST.—THE ONLY SAFE, CERtain and sure remedy for either single or married ladies in regulating and removing all obstructions. Dr. POWERS' French Periodical Drops. Therefore every lady should use them. Designed expressly for obstinate cases which all other remedies of the kind have failed to cure. Office No. 12 Laight-st.

SULPHUR AND VAPOR BATHS—ESTABLISHED IN 1820—The only genuine baths in the United States, at No. 1 Carroll-place, bleecker-st., corner of Laurens, for cure of rheumatism, mercurial affections, &c. Given daily by Dr. A. L. TIMOLAT & CO.

SOMETHING FOR EVERY LADY.—DR. WARD'S Great Benefactor. The great periodical remedy, infallible for the immediate removal of monthly obstructions. Office, No. 12 Laight-st., near Canal, where Dr. WARD can be consulted confidentially, day or evening.

PRIVATE CONSULTATION.—DR. HUNTER has, for thirty years, confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has treated no less than fifty thousand cases, without an instance of failure. His great remedy, HUNTER'S RED DROP, cures certain diseases, when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury, but possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb, unless his remedy is used. This is what he claims for it, and what no other will accomplish. Its value in this respect has become so well known, that scientific men in every department of medical knowledge begin to appreciate it, for hardly a week passes that he is not consulted by druggists, chemists and physicians, in regard to some pitiful patient, who has exhausted the whole field of the faculty, and still the disease will appear. Its popularity is so great, that there is not a quack doctor in the City that has not attacked it; and when they find their lies are not so easily swallowed, they then pretend that they can make it. It is $1 a vial, and cannot be obtained genuine anywhere but at the old office, No. 3 Division-st. Book for 15 three-cent stamps, 200 pages, 100 colored illustrations. The best work out.

DR. COOPER, NO. 14 DUANE-ST., MAY BE confidently consulted on all diseases of a private nature. A practice of 30 years, devoted to the treatment and cure of Syphilitic, Mercurial, and diseases of a delicate nature, enables Dr. C. to make speedy and permanent cures, no matter of how long standing the case may be. Strictures of the urethra and seminal weakness, brought on by a secret habit, effectually cured. The victims of misplaced confidence, who have been misled by quack advertisements, can call on Dr. C. with the certainty of being radically cured. N. B.—Dr. C. is a qualified physician and surgeon, and a member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of New-York. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
